Part 1: LEASE RIDER Terms and Conditions

THIS RESIDENTIAL LEASE RIDER AGREEMENT (Lease/Lease Rider) is between the Resurrection Project (TRP), and the resident named in Part 2 (Resident). TRP, relying upon data provided by the resident about income, family composition, and housing needs, leases to the resident the dwelling unit described in Part 2 of the Lease Rider, executed by the resident and TRP, subject to the terms and conditions contained in this Lease.

FOR PHA-Assisted Units

In circumstances where there is specific conflict between TRP lease terms, rules, policies or procedures and the Chicago Housing Authority rules, policies or procedures, TRP's lease terms, rules, policies or procedures will command, unless superseded by HUD regulations, federal or state laws, and/or local ordinance. Additionally, TRP lease terms, rules, policies or procedures may be superseded by TRP's specific adoption of CHA policies or procedures. Where TRP's lease terms, rules, policies or procedures are silent, CHA policies and procedures may apply.

Section 1. Lease Term and Amount of Rent

- (a) The initial term of this Lease is 12 months, unless otherwise modified or terminated in accordance with this Lease. For PHA – Assisted Units and PHA Residents, the Lease is automatically renewable except for noncompliance with the community service requirements or participation in an economic self-sufficiency program for applicable households.
- (b) The rent amount is stated in the Lease Rider Part 2. Rent shall remain in effect unless adjusted by TRP, in accordance with this Lease. The rent amount shall be determined by TRP in compliance with United States Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) regulations. Rent must be paid in full. Post dated checks, incomplete checks, or checks not made payable to "The Resurrection Project" will be mailed to the address of record for Tenant. Tenant's full name, Building Address or Building name, and Apartment Number must be on the check or money order.
- (c) Rent is due and payable on the first day of each month. Rent is considered late if not paid by 1:00 p.m. on the fifth business day of the month at the rent box on site or by 4:00 p.m. on the fifth business day of the month at the TRP management office. Tenants who pay rent late are subject to a $10 late fee. (See TRP Rent Collection Policy)
- (d) Each time a resident's check for rent is not honored (due to insufficient funds) TRP will collect a fee of Thirty Five Dollars ($35) in addition to the Ten Dollar ($10) Late Fee. If the resident's check is not honored two (2) times during one lease term, TRP will not accept personal checks during the remainder of that lease term; only cashier checks, certified checks, or money orders will be accepted. (See TRP Rent Collection Policy)
- (e) During the annual re-examination process, PHA residents will have a choice to pay either flat rent or income-based rent. (Utility allowances are not applicable to flat rent.)

- (f) Notice of Rent Adjustment and Grievance Rights: When TRP makes any increase in the rent amount, TRP shall provide written notice that states the effective date of the rent adjustment to the resident no less than 30 days prior to the effective date. In the event of rent decreases, TRP may provide less than 30 days notice if necessary, in order to comply with the requirements set forth in Lease Part 1 Section 5(d) 1 and 2. The resident may ask for an explanation of the specific grounds of the determination of TRP concerning rent, dwelling size, or eligibility. For PHA Assisted Units and PHA Residents, if the resident does not agree with the determination, the resident shall have the right to request a hearing under the CHA Resident's Grievance Procedure.

Section 2. Charges in Addition to Rent

- (a) In addition to rent, the resident is responsible for the payment of any other charges not limited to those specified in Lease Rider Part 2. The Notice of Charges in Addition to Rent shall advise the resident that he/she has the right to an explanation of the charge, and that disputes concerning charges may be resolved through the CHA Resident's Grievance Procedure (for PHA Assisted Units and PHA Residents)
- (b) Reasonable Accommodations: Qualified persons who request reasonable accommodations, in the form of equipment or devices necessary for the treatment of the disability or to facilitate access to the dwelling unit, common areas, community facilities, or grounds, will not be charged for the reasonable accommodation.
- (c) Charges in addition to rent are due on the first day of the month after TRP has provided the resident a minimum of 14 calendar days notice. The additional charges will be added to and become part of the resident's monthly rental account if not paid in accordance with the notice received. The resident may be granted the opportunity to enter into a reasonable payment agreement based upon the resident's monthly adjusted income and payment history. Charges in addition to rent can include but are not limited to:
1. Payment of utility charges.
For resident-paid utilities, the resident pays for all utilities directly to the utility company. Residents receive a monthly utility allowance, which is factored in the rent calculation, as specified in Lease Rider Part 2.
 2. Maintenance costs. The resident will be charged for services or repairs due to intentional, negligent, or reckless damage to the dwelling unit, assigned areas, common areas, or grounds beyond normal wear and tear caused by the resident, resident authorized members, resident's assistance animal(s), or guests. Charges will be made in accordance with the Schedule of Maintenance Charges posted by TRP, or when work is not listed on the Schedule of Maintenance Charges, charges will be equivalent to the actual cost to TRP for the labor and materials needed to complete the work.
 3. Installation charges. TRP shall charge for the installation of approved resident supplied air conditioners and other approved appliances or equipment that require special wiring or structural changes to the dwelling unit or premises.

Section 3. Payment Location

Rent and other charges can be paid at locations specified in Lease Rider Part 2. TRP will not accept cash for rent payments or payments for charges in addition to rent. Notice of payment location changes will be provided to residents 30 days prior to the action.

Section 4. Security Deposit

(a) The exact dollar amount of the security deposit is noted in Lease Rider Part 2. Existing PHA residents who have not paid a security deposit must pay a minimum deposit of $75.00 within three months of signing the Lease. Security deposits shall not be increased even if rent increases nor decreased if the rent decreases.

(b) TRP shall deposit the security deposit in an interest bearing account, supply the resident with information of the account and credit the resident's account on an annual basis, in accordance with state and local law and ordinances.

(c) In accordance with state and local laws and ordinances, after proper notice that the unit has been vacated TRP shall complete a move-out inspection and return the security deposit with interest to the resident. The security deposit is subject to the deductions stated in this section and in accordance with state and local law. If deductions are made, TRP shall mail an itemized statement of the cause for the deductions to the last known address of the resident vacating the unit, within 30 calendar days.

TRP may use the security deposit at the expiration or termination of this Lease for the following:

1. As reimbursement for any rent that has not been validly withheld or deducted pursuant to state or federal law or local ordinance; and
2. To reimburse the cost of repairing any damages caused by the resident, resident authorized members, resident's pet(s) and animal(s), or guest(s), or other person(s) under the resident's control, excluding reasonable wear and tear.

(d) The security deposit shall not be used by the resident to pay the first or last month's rent.

Section 5. Annual and Interim Re-examination of Rent, Dwelling Size, and Eligibility

The rent amount as stated in Lease Rider Part 2 is due each month until the rent amount is modified or amended after an annual or an interim re-examination. Any changes in the lease must be in writing and result in a lease amendment or a newly signed lease.

(a) Annual Re-examinations:

All residents and all authorized members will be re-examined annually to determine eligibility for continued occupancy. As part of this re-examination, the resident and all adult authorized members of the household, including any live-in aide, will undergo a criminal background check and credit report review. TRP will inform all residents how to obtain a free copy of their credit check. The Property Manager will provide a copy of the criminal background check to all residents who have been denied eligibility for continued occupancy due to criminal activity.

The resident must supply TRP with accurate written information about family composition, citizenship and/or eligible immigration status (for PHA residents), age of resident authorized members, income and source of income of all resident authorized members, assets and related information necessary to determine eligibility, annual income, adjusted income, rent, and appropriateness of dwelling size. Failure to supply such information and/or misrepresentation of information is a serious violation of the terms of the Lease and may result in lease termination.

The resident and resident adult authorized members agree to comply with reasonable TRP requests for verification by signing releases or authorizations for third-party sources, including HUD Form 9886 and the CHA/TRP Authorization and Consent Release Form, presenting documents for review, or providing other suitable forms of verification. This information will be used by TRP to decide whether the amount of the rent should be changed, whether the dwelling size is appropriate for the resident's needs, and whether the resident and other family members are in compliance with the terms and conditions of the lease agreement.

(b) Interim Re-examinations:

If there are any changes in a family's income or household composition between annual re-examinations, an interim re-examination may be conducted. Certain changes require advance approval by the TRP.

(c) Hardship Suspension/Exemption from the minimum rent (for residents of PHA-Assisted Units only):

A minimum rent hardship suspension will be granted to a PHA resident who requests and can document, that due to a financial hardship he/she is unable to pay the minimum rent amount. If a resident paying minimum rent requests a hardship suspension, TRP must suspend the minimum rent, effective the following month, and determine whether the resident qualifies for hardship exemption. A hardship suspension from the minimum rent does not mean the rent amount becomes zero (0). The family is required to pay the greater of 30% of adjusted monthly income or 10% of gross monthly income when that amount is less than the minimum rent. When appropriate, a hardship exemption will be granted considering the basis of the hardship and the amount the resident should be obligated to pay based on their income.

(d) Effective date of rent adjustments (for residents of PHA-Assisted Units only):

1. Timely Reporting (Within 10 calendar days of the occurrence)

- Decreases - First day of the month after the decrease in income is first reported to the property manager.
- Increases - First day of the second month following the increase in income.

2. Late Reporting (After 10 calendar days of the occurrence)

- Decreases - The household is not entitled to a rent credit for any prior monthly rent before the decrease in income is reported to the property manager. Any applicable earned income disallowance (EID) period will occur, whether reported in a timely manner or not.
 - Increases - The household will receive a retroactive charge for an increase in income that would have resulted in a rent increase and was not reported timely, retroactive to the month after the change should have been reported.
- (e) Retroactive rent charges (for residents of PHA-Assisted Units only) will be applied only where it is found that the resident or resident authorized members have (1) misrepresented or omitted the facts on which the rent is based, so that the rent the resident is paying is less than the rent the resident should have been charged; or (2) is late in reporting in accordance with the CHA's ACOP. The increase in rent shall be applied retroactively to the first of the second month following the event in which the misrepresentation or failure to report occurred.
- (f) When TRP makes a rent calculation error at admission or re-examination and it causes the rent of a PHA-Assisted unit household's rent to be too low, any increase in rent will not go into effect retroactively. The increase in rent will go into effect the first day of the second month after TRP error is discovered and proper notice of the rent increase has been given to the household pursuant to Lease Rider Part 1 Section 1(f). If TRP's rent calculation error resulted in an overpayment by the resident, the resident has a choice between a check for overpayment or a credit to their account.

Section 6. General Conditions for Use and Occupancy of the Dwelling Unit

- (a) The dwelling unit shall be the sole domicile of the resident and resident authorized members.
- (b) The resident and resident authorized members shall have the right to exclusive use and occupancy of the dwelling unit. The resident and resident's authorized members shall not assign the Lease, nor sublease the dwelling unit.
- (c) The dwelling unit must be used only as a private residence solely for the resident and resident authorized members named on the Lease. TRP must provide prior written approval for the resident to use their dwelling unit for legal profit-making activities incidental to the primary use of the dwelling unit.
- (d) The resident shall have the right to accommodate individual guests or visitors for a period up to thirty (30) calendar days in a calendar year; however, each visit cannot exceed seven (7) consecutive calendar days. If the resident wishes a guest to remain longer than seven (7) consecutive days or more than thirty (30) calendar days in a calendar year, the resident must submit a written request to the property manager. TRP will not unreasonably deny a request for an extension.

Section 7. Housing Transfers – PHA – Assisted Units and PHA Residents

TRP has the authority to relocate a PHA resident and PHA resident authorized members to another PHA-Assisted unit in the same or different development under the control or management of TRP, pursuant to the TRP transfer policy and CHA ACOP.

Section 8. Resident's Obligations

Residents and resident authorized members are obligated:

- (a) To comply with all responsibilities imposed upon the resident and resident authorized members by applicable provisions of the building and housing codes materially affecting health and safety, and where/when applicable to allow TRP and/or the CHA to make necessary inspections of the resident's dwelling unit pursuant to TRP's policy and/or the CHA ACOP.
- (b) To obtain and maintain utility connections. The utility bill must be in the name of a consenting adult authorized member of the household.
- (c) To personally refrain from and to cause resident authorized members, guests and other persons under the residents' control to refrain from destroying, defacing, damaging, littering, or removing any part of the dwelling unit or development, and to immediately notify TRP of any damage in the dwelling unit.
- (d) To keep the dwelling unit and other such areas as may be assigned to the resident for the resident's exclusive use in a clean and safe condition, and to cure housekeeping violations within 30 calendar days of notice.
- (e) To buy and install working batteries in smoke and carbon monoxide detectors within the unit.
- (f) To act and cause resident authorized members and/or guests to behave in a manner that will not disturb other residents' peaceful enjoyment of their accommodations and that will contribute to maintaining the building and/or development in a decent, safe, and sanitary condition. This includes refraining from alcohol abuse, or any other activity that interferes with the health, safety, or right to peaceful enjoyment of the premises by other residents, TRP and CHA employees, agents of TRP, or persons residing in the immediate vicinity of the premises.
- (g) To use in a reasonable manner all electrical, plumbing, sanitary, heating, ventilation, air conditioning, and other appurtenances, including elevators. Reasonable behavior includes, but is not limited to, not splicing, stealing, running extension cords, or other wiring throughout the property to produce utility connections.
- (h) To provide appropriate climate control in the unit and take other measures to retard and prevent mold and mildew from accumulating in the unit.
 1. To remove visible moisture accumulation on windows, walls and other surfaces as soon as reasonably possible.
 2. To not block or cover any of the heating, ventilation or air-conditioning ducts in the unit.
 3. To immediately report to the management office:

- a) any evidence of a water leak or excessive moisture in the unit, as well as in any storage room, garage or other common area;
 - b) any evidence of mold or mildew like growth that cannot be removed by simply applying a common household cleaner and wiping the area;
 - c) any failure or malfunction in the heating, ventilation, air conditioning systems or laundry systems in the unit; and
 - d) any inoperable doors or windows.
4. Resident further agrees that Resident shall be responsible for damage to the unit and Resident's property as well as injury to Resident and Resident's Invitees resulting from Resident's failure to comply with the terms of this paragraph.
- (i) To keep assistance animals on the premises, only in accordance with the Assistance Animal Policy located in Section 25 below. Pet Ownership is not allowed and keeping an assistance animal requires prior written consent and approval of TRP, which will become part of this Lease. Violations may result in lease termination.
 - (j) To dispose of all ashes, garbage, rubbish, and other waste from the dwelling unit in a sanitary and safe manner.
 - (k) To remove from TRP property any vehicles owned or in the control of the household, that are without valid registration or TRP parking permit. To refrain from parking any vehicles in any right-of-way, fire lane, or other TRP property not designated for parking purposes. Any inoperable or unlicensed vehicle as described above will be removed from TRP property at the resident's expense. Automobile repairs are not permitted on TRP property.
 - (l) To not change locks or install new locks or anti-theft devices without the written approval of TRP. If TRP approves the resident's request to install such locks, the resident agrees to provide a key for each lock. When this Lease ends, the resident agrees to return all keys to the dwelling unit to the property manager. TRP will charge the resident $35 for each key not returned.
 - (m) To abide by the necessary and reasonable policies and procedures established by TRP, for the benefit and well-being of the housing development and the residents, which shall be posted in the management office and incorporated by reference in the Lease.
 - (n) To refrain from and cause resident authorized members and guests to refrain from:
 1. Engaging in any activity, including physical and verbal assaults that threaten the health, safety, or right to peaceful enjoyment of the premises by other residents, TRP and CHA employees, agents of TRP, or persons residing in the immediate vicinity of the premises. A criminal conviction is not needed to demonstrate serious violations of the Lease.

2. Engaging in any criminal activity that threatens the life, health, or property of other residents, TRP and CHA employees, agents of TRP, or persons residing in the immediate vicinity of the premises.
 - a) If a resident or an authorized member of a resident's lease is a victim of domestic violence, sexual violence, dating violence, or stalking, engaged in by a member of the resident's household or any guest or other person under the resident's control, then this alone will not be a cause for termination of the tenancy or occupancy rights.
 - b) TRP may remove a member from the Lease, without regard to whether the member is a signatory to the Lease, in order to evict, remove, terminate occupancy rights, or terminate assistance to any individual who is a resident or authorized member, and who engages in criminal acts of physical violence against the resident or other authorized members or against others, without evicting, removing, terminating assistance to or otherwise penalizing the victim (authorized family member) of such violence, who is also a resident or authorized member.
 - c) Once notified, TRP retains authority to honor court orders addressing the rights of access to or control of the property, including civil protection orders: (a) issued to protect the victim (authorized family member), and (b) issued to address the distribution or possession of property among authorized family members in cases where a family breaks up.
 - d) TRP maintains the right and authority to evict a resident or authorized member of the resident's household, including a victim of domestic violence, sexual violence, dating violence, or stalking for any violation of the lease not premised on the act or acts of violence in question. TRP must not subject an individual (authorized family member) who is or has been a victim of domestic violence, sexual violence, dating violence, or stalking to a more demanding standard than other residents in determining whether to evict or terminate.
 - e) TRP maintains the authority to terminate the tenancy of any resident if TRP can demonstrate that the resident, authorized members of the resident's household, any guest or other person under the resident's control, are causing an actual and imminent threat to other residents, TRP and CHA employees, agents of TRP, or persons residing in the immediate vicinity of the premises.
3. Engaging in any drug-related criminal activity on or off TRP premises. For purposes of the Lease, the term drug-related criminal activity means the illegal manufacture, sale, distribution, use, possession, storage, service, delivery, or cultivation of a controlled substance.
4. Unless required by lawful employment, displaying, using, or possessing anywhere on TRP property any firearms, ammunition, or other weapons. It shall be a serious breach of the Lease for any resident or resident authorized members to display a weapon with a verbal or non-verbal threat to shoot, fire, explode, throw, or otherwise discharge the weapon or to inflict any injury on another person or to damage any property through the intentional, reckless, careless, or negligent use of a weapon.

5. Causing any fire on TRP premises, either intentionally or through gross negligence, recklessness, or careless disregard.
 - (o) To refrain from and keep persons under the resident's control from engaging in any criminal activity that threatens the health, safety, or right of peaceful enjoyment of the premises by other residents, TRP and CHA employees, agents of TRP, or persons residing in the immediate vicinity of the premises. To have persons under the resident's control refrain from any drug-related criminal activity on the premises.
 - (p) To refrain from and prohibit resident authorized members or guests from allowing persons who are under Electronic Home Detention Program (Home Monitoring/House Arrest Program) from entering or residing on the premises.
 1. Cook County Electronic Monitoring Program: Resident must notify TRP within 48 hours of the return of an authorized member who is a participant in the Cook County Electronic Monitoring Program to his/her unit. Failure of the resident to notify the property manager in a timely fashion is grounds for lease termination. Allowing residency of a participant in the Cook County Electronic Monitoring Program in the resident's unit who is not listed on the Lease as an authorized member for that unit is grounds for lease termination.
 2. Illinois Department of Corrections Electronic Monitoring Program: Felons participating in the Illinois Department of Corrections (IDOC) Electronic Monitoring Program who are not listed as an authorized member of the resident's current lease are barred from entering or residing in the resident's unit. Allowing residency of a felon participating in the IDOC electronic monitoring program in the resident's unit who is not listed on the lease as an authorized member for that unit is grounds for lease termination.
 3. Residents and/or resident authorized members, who are found to be a participant in the Illinois Department of Corrections Electronic Monitoring Program based on the conviction where the underlining criminal activity is a violation of the lease, is cause for termination of tenancy of the household.
 4. Resident and/or resident authorized members, who are found to be a participant in the Cook County Electronic Monitoring Program, may be subject to termination of their tenancy of the household, pursuant to Section 16 of this lease, if the alleged criminal activity underlying their arrest is a violation of the lease.

(q) School enrollment and Child Care

1. Resident must provide documentation that family members over age six (6) and through age sixteen (16) who live in the household attend school regularly.
2. Adequate day care or supervision must be provided for children under 13 years old.

- (v) To refrain from providing accommodations to boarders or lodgers.
- (w) To refrain from allowing a former public housing resident, who was evicted from a federally-funded program for criminal activities to occupy their unit. The term to occupy means to reside in the unit.

TRP may ban visitors who engage in any behavior that threatens the health, safety, or right to peaceful enjoyment of other residents, including criminal activity cases. Visitors banned for such behavior, will be restricted from entering TRP properties. A resident will be notified in writing by the property manager when a guest of his/hers has been banned. Residents of PHA-Assisted units may grieve the CHA's decision to ban a visitor in accordance with the CHA Grievance procedure. Residents will be required to sign an agreement stating they will not allow the banned visitor into their unit. Failure to sign such an agreement or violation of the signed agreement is grounds for lease termination.

Section 9. Restrictions on Alterations

- (a) The resident agrees not to make alterations, additions, or improvements without first obtaining written permission from TRP. Alterations include, but are not limited to:
 1. Changing or removing any part of the appliances, fixtures, or equipment provided by TRP in the unit;
 2. Painting or installing wallpaper or contact paper in the unit;
 3. Attaching awnings or window guards in the unit;

- (c) TRP agrees to provide reasonable accommodations to an eligible qualified resident with disabilities, including making changes to rules, policies, or procedures, and making and paying for a reasonable accommodation to a unit or common areas. TRP is not required to provide accommodations that constitute a fundamental alteration to the program or which would pose an undue financial and administrative burden.
- (d) TRP will consider the needs and concerns of victims of domestic violence, sexual violence, dating violence, or stalking when considering requests for alterations, additions, or improvements to the dwelling unit.

Section 10. Changes in the Household

- (a) Children born, adopted, and granted through a court-awarded custody agreement (excluding foster care arrangements) to a current member of the household during tenancy will automatically be added to the Lease upon prompt notification (within 10 calendar days of the occurrence) by the resident.
- (b) For PHA-Assisted units and PHA Residents, pursuant to the CHA's ACOP, the addition of foster children, foster adults, kinship care children, and live-in aides to the household, require the prior written approval of TRP and the CHA. TRP and the CHA will not approve lease addition requests for adults. Extenuating circumstances will be made for legally protected relationships or extenuating circumstances determined at the sole discretion of the CHA and TRP.
- (c) Prior written approval to add a live-in aide is required and shall not be unreasonably refused. Live-in aides are required to meet all admissions screening criteria, include PHA criteria if request is for addition to a PHA-Assisted unit. A live-in aide is a person who resides with one or more elderly, near elderly residents, or a resident with a disability and who (a) is determined, by a knowledgeable professional, to be essential to the care and well-being of the resident, (b) is not obligated for the financial support of the resident, and (c) who would not be living in the dwelling unit except to provide the necessary supportive services. A live-in aide is not required to share a bedroom with another member of the household and may be assigned his/her own bedroom. A live-in aide may not move into a unit if it would create overcrowding as defined by TRP occupancy standards. However, a resident may request a transfer and/or a reasonable accommodation. Live-in aides have no rights as remaining family members upon the death, eviction, departure, or abandonment of the resident family.
- (d) TRP shall approve or disapprove a resident's request, in accordance with applicable TRP and CHA policies and procedures, where applicable, to allow a foster child, foster adult, kinship care child, live-in aide, or adult to be added to the lease and move into the dwelling unit within 30 business days of receipt of the completed request package by TRP. This time period can be extended if there is a delay beyond the control of TRP or the resident.
- (e) Resident authorized members who move out of the dwelling unit, for any reason, shall be reported by the resident to TRP in writing within 10 calendar days of the occurrence. The resident shall complete appropriate move-out documentation.

Remaining family members: If the head of household dies, continued occupancy by remaining family members is only permissible if there is at least one family member on the Lease living in the household who can pass applicant screening and is 18 years old or over or an emancipated minor. For PHA – Assisted units, the remaining family members must have lived in the unit as an authorized occupant(s) on the Lease, for a minimum of three consecutive years (36 months) without any unauthorized extended absences to become the head of household

- (f) For PHA – Assisted units and PHA Residents, if the head of the household leaves the unit without housing subsidy assistance (e.g. institutionalization, forming a new household in unsubsidized housing and giving their RRC or Post 10/1/99 RRC rights to the remaining family members, etc.), TRP may permit the remaining family members to continue to occupy the unit if there is one or more family members who is 18 years old or over on the Lease, living in the unit for a minimum of three consecutive years (36 months), and who can pass applicant screening. Continued occupancy by family members is not allowed when the head of household's move from the unit was initiated under the CHA Leaseholder Housing Choice and Relocation Rights Contract 10/1/99, the CHA Relocation Rights Contract for Families with Initial Occupancy after 10/1/99, or Victims Assistance.
- (g) When a head of household leaves a household with children or adults with a disability who cannot assume the role of the head of household, and there is no remaining family member to assume the head of household role, the lease will be terminated. Subject to program eligibility and voucher availability, the CHA may offer either a HCV or a public housing unit to the permanent legal custodial guardian.
- (h) A new head of household, under the above paragraph (g), will be charged for any arrearages incurred by the former head of household. TRP reserves the right to establish a payment plan with the new head of household. Consideration will be given to whether an eviction for arrearages would result in the separation of the family.
- (i) If this Lease is an extension of occupancy by the resident's household under a prior Lease or Leases with TRP, any amounts due under the prior Lease or Leases may be charged and collected as if the amounts due occurred under this Lease.

Section 11. TRP Obligations

TRP is obligated:

- (a) To maintain the dwelling unit and development in a decent, safe, and sanitary condition.
- (b) To comply with the requirements of applicable city building codes, housing codes, and HUD regulations materially affecting health and safety.
- (c) To make necessary repairs to the dwelling unit.
- (d) To keep buildings, facilities, and common areas, not otherwise assigned to the resident for maintenance and upkeep, in a clean and safe condition.

If providing such modification or accommodation would result in a fundamental program alteration or undue financial and/or administrative burden, TRP will take alternate action to accommodate the individual. Reasonable accommodations will be provided pursuant to TRP Reasonable Accommodations Policy and Procedure.
- (j) Where applicable, to abide by the terms and conditions of the CHA Leaseholder Housing Choice and Relocation Rights Contract 10/1/99 and the CHA Relocation Rights Contract for Families with Initial Occupancy after 10/1/99.

maintenance, making improvements or repairs, inspecting the unit, or showing the unit for re-leasing.

- (b) When the resident calls to request maintenance on the dwelling unit, TRP shall acknowledge receipt of the request within 24 hours and the resident will be provided a 48-hour window in which work orders will be completed. A request for maintenance constitutes permission for TRP to enter the unit and perform the maintenance. If the resident is not at home when TRP performs the requested maintenance, TRP shall leave a copy of the completed work order in the unit.
- (c) Aside from maintenance requests, TRP shall give all residents a minimum 48 hours written notice that TRP intends to enter the dwelling unit and state the reason for entry. Qualified residents with disabilities will be provided notice in the alternative format requested by the resident (e.g. Braille, large print, audiotape, etc.).

- (f) If the resident and all adult members of the household are absent from the dwelling unit at the time of entry, TRP shall leave a written statement in the dwelling unit specifying the date, time, and purpose of entry prior to leaving the dwelling unit.

Section 13. Defects Hazardous to Life, Health or Safety

- (a) TRP Responsibilities and Services: TRP shall be responsible for repair of the unit within a reasonable period of time after receiving notice from the resident. If the damage was caused by the resident, resident authorized members, resident's assistance animal(s), guests, or persons under the resident's control, the reasonable cost of the repairs shall be charged to the resident. The reasonable period of time to abate and repair an emergency is 24 hours.
- (b) If necessary repairs cannot be made within a reasonable time, TRP shall offer the resident decent, safe, and sanitary alternative accommodations.
- (c) If repairs cannot be made by TRP within a reasonable amount of time, or if decent, safe and sanitary, alternative accommodations that do not contain hazardous defects are unavailable, then rent shall abate in proportion to the seriousness of the damage and loss in value as a dwelling unit. The abatement will remain in effect until the damage is corrected.

- (d) No abatement of rent shall occur if the resident rejects the alternative accommodations and remains in the dwelling unit or if the damage was caused by the resident, resident authorized members, resident's assistance animal(s), guests, or persons under the resident's control.
- (e) If the resident's dwelling unit is uninhabitable or is hazardous to life, health, and safety, and if a decent and sanitary alternative accommodation that does not contain hazardous defects is offered and refused and the resident refuses to leave the unit until it is repaired, the resident's Lease may be terminated.
- (f) Resident Responsibilities: The resident shall immediately notify the property manager of the damage to the dwelling unit that is hazardous to life, health, or safety of the occupants and what damage may cause further damage to the dwelling unit.

- (h) TRP shall not be liable for any injuries or property damage sustained on any premises leased or assigned to the resident except for injuries or property damage resulting from intentional or negligent acts or omissions on the part of TRP, TRP representatives, or agents of TRP.
- (i) All accidents involving injury or loss of property to the resident and/or resident authorized members, resident's assistance animal(s), guests, or persons under the resident's control must be reported, verbally or in writing, to the property management office within five business days. Failure to comply with this reporting procedure does not waive or foreclose any legal or equitable remedies that the person may have against TRP with respect to said damages or injury.
- (j) TRP makes no representation that its premises are safe from the threat of theft, injury or damage to residents, residents' families, or the residents' property. TRP makes no representation that its gates, fences, locks, security or surveillance cameras, and other equipment and services are provided for resident's safety. Any such items are provided for the protection of TRP's property.

Section 14. Inspections

TRP shall give the resident a written statement of the condition of the dwelling unit and note any equipment provided with the dwelling unit. The statement shall be signed by TRP and the resident or his/her representative. A copy of the statement will be retained in the resident's folder. Any deficiencies noted on the inspection report will be corrected by TRP at no charge to the resident prior to move-in or within 10 business days after move-in, provided the defect does not render the unit uninhabitable. In the event TRP fails to correct the deficiencies within 10 business days of the move-in, the resident may exercise the remedy described in Lease Part 1 Section 13(c).
- (c) Move-out Inspection: TRP will inspect the dwelling unit at the time the resident vacates and give the resident a written statement of the charges, if any, for which the resident is responsible. In order to protect the resident's rights, the resident and/or representative may join in such move-out inspection, unless the resident vacates without notice to TRP.

Section 15. Notice Procedures

- (a) Resident Responsibility: The Resident must personally deliver a written notice to the property management office or the central office of TRP, or send it prepaid first-class mail properly addressed. Any notice to TRP can be in an alternative format as a result of a request for a reasonable accommodation by a qualified resident with disabilities.

This means that any adult household member who is neither exempt nor covered by the Safe Harbor Clause and is not employed on a regular basis as defined by the TRP Employment Requirement.

4. An incident or incidents of actual or threatened domestic violence, sexual violence, dating violence, or stalking will not be construed as serious or repeated violations of the lease by the victim or threatened victim of that violence and will not be good cause for termination of the assistance, tenancy, or occupancy rights of a victim of such violence.

(d) Extended Absences

1. Residents must advise TRP if they will be absent from their unit for more than 30 consecutive days. The head or co-head of household must also notify the property manager if the unit will be entirely vacated or if any authorized family member will be residing in his/her unit during the absence. Exceptions will be made in instances where the resident is a victim of domestic violence, sexual violence, dating violence, or stalking. To the extent that circumstances allow, residents shall notify the property manager, secure the unit, and provide a means for TRP to contact the resident in an emergency. Residents who cannot provide proper notification due to long-term hospital admittance or a stay in a rehabilitative center may be eligible for a reasonable accommodation to this policy.
2. Although a resident continues to pay rent and utilities, a resident may not be absent from their dwelling unit for longer than 90 consecutive days, or 180 days if the absence is due to verified medical reasons, without losing his/her rights to tenancy to the unit. If the resident exceeds the limit for absence, property management will take appropriate legal action, including lease termination and eviction. A resident who plans to be or is absent from his/her unit for longer than 90 days must inform their property manager to avoid lease termination. A resident may request in writing to have a longer absence approved. TRP has full discretion of approval and will make the final determination on a case by case basis.

- (e) Remaining Family Members Eviction proceedings can be commenced if:
1. The remaining family members fail to inform TRP within 10 calendar days of the death or departure of the former head of household;
 2. The remaining family members do not have a family member qualified to sign a new Lease as the new head of household or cannot pass screening;
 3. TRP approved remaining family member fails to sign a new Lease within 30 days of approval of their request; and/or
 4. The household has pending rent default or criminal violations.
- (f) In deciding to evict for criminal activity, TRP may consider all of the circumstances of the case, including the seriousness of the offense, the impact of the offense on other residents and the surrounding community, the extent of participation by resident authorized members and the effects that the eviction would have on resident authorized members not involved in the proscribed activity. In appropriate cases, TRP may permit continued occupancy by remaining authorized members and may impose a condition that resident authorized members who engaged in the proscribed activity will neither reside in nor visit the dwelling unit. TRP may require a family member who has engaged in the illegal use of drugs to present evidence of successful completion of a treatment program as a condition to being allowed to reside or visit in the dwelling unit.

TRP and the CHA, if applicable, will not be required to prove that the resident knew, or should have known, that the authorized member of the household, guest, or another person under the resident's control was engaged in the prohibited activity.

- (g) If TRP seeks to terminate/not renew the lease for criminal activity shown by the criminal background checks under Lease Rider Part 1 Section 5(a), upon the resident's request, TRP will supply the resident with contact information to obtain a copy of the criminal background record prior to any proceedings to terminate.
- (h) This Lease will not be renewed and tenancy will be terminated at the end of the 12-month term, where applicable, by TRP if non-exempt adult members of the resident family are not in compliance with the Community Service and Economic Self-Sufficiency Requirement described in Lease Rider Part 1 Section 22.
- (i) TRP shall give written notice of proposed termination in English, Spanish, or other languages as needed³ or, in the case of a resident with a disability, in an alternative format. The amount of notice requirement is:
1. Fourteen (14) days, for PHA Residents, and five (5) days for all other residents in the case of failure to pay rent;
 2. A reasonable time, in accordance with state or local law or ordinance, considering the seriousness of the situation (but not to exceed 30 days) when the health or safety of other residents, TRP and CHA employees, agents of TRP, or persons residing in the immediate vicinity of the premises is threatened, or in the event of any drug-related criminal or violent criminal activity; or

3. Thirty (30) days in any other case.
- (j) If TRP prevails in an eviction action by obtaining an order for possession or if the parties agree in a stipulation, the resident will be liable for all costs awarded by the court, excluding the attorney's fees for TRP, unless the resident prevails in the action.

- (b) Seven days after the resident has been deemed to have abandoned the dwelling unit, TRP may secure the dwelling unit and the resident shall be deemed to have abandoned any personal property remaining in the dwelling unit. TRP may remove any personal property from the dwelling unit and dispose of it. Nothing in this section shall affect any other remedies provided to TRP under this Lease.

Section 19. Lease Modifications, Riders, and Addendums
