   Applicants must meet Levy House eligibility criteria including income, credit check (see Q6), criminal background check (see Q5), and a rental history check.

5. How far is the lookback on criminal background checks?
   Three years.

6. Is there a credit check? If so, what is the minimum acceptable credit score?
   Greater emphasis will be placed on the applicant’s history of paying rent, utilities and other housing related costs, than on the applicant’s consumer credit history. Persons applying for Levy House will not be subject to rejection due to consumer credit payment history. However, a credit report will be obtained in order to properly review a prospective tenant’s history of paying housing, utilities, and other costs.

7. Are there any preferences in place, i.e. veterans, disabled, VAWA?
   Levy House is for households 62+ years of age. All other CHA preferences apply per the CHA Administrative Plan, including VAWA.
