Section 3 Compliance requires that any contract or subcontract entered into for the benefit of public housing residents shall require that, to the greatest extent feasible, economic opportunity in the form of training, employment, contracting, and other economic opportunities arising from the expenditure of public housing assistance for housing rehabilitation and housing construction be directed to low- and very low-income persons.

1. Section 3 - Clause

- i. The work to be performed under this contract is subject to the requirements of section 3 of the Housing and Urban Development Act of 1968, as amended, 12 U.S.C. 1701u (section 3). The purpose of section 3 is to ensure that employment and other economic opportunities generated by HUD assistance or HUD-assisted projects covered by section 3, shall, to the greatest extent feasible, be directed to low- and very low-income persons, particularly persons who are recipients of HUD assistance for housing.
- ii. The parties to this contract agree to comply with HUD's regulations in 24 CFR Part 135, which implement section 3. As evidenced by their execution of this contract, the parties to this contract certify that they are under no contractual or other impediment that would prevent them from complying with the Part 135 regulations.
- iii. The Consultant agrees to send to each labor organization or representative of workers with which the Consultant has a collective bargaining agreement or other understanding, if any, a notice advising the labor organization or workers' representative of the Consultant's commitments under this section 3 clause, and will post copies of the notice in conspicuous places at the work site where both employees and applicants for training and employment positions can see the notice. The notice shall describe the section 3 preference, shall set forth minimum number and job titles subject to hire, availability of apprenticeship and training positions, the qualifications for each; and the name and location of the person(s) taking applications for each of the positions; and the anticipated date the work shall begin.
- iv. The Consultant agrees to include this section 3 clause in every subcontract subject to compliance with regulations in 24 CFR Part 135, and agrees to take appropriate action, as provided in an applicable provision of the subcontract or in this section 3 clause, upon a finding that the sub-consultant is in violation of the regulations in 24 CFR Part 135. The Consultant will not subcontract with any sub-consultant where the Consultant has notice or knowledge that the sub-consultant has been found in violation of the regulations in 24 CFR Part 135.

- v. The Consultant will certify that any vacant employment positions, including training positions, that are filled (1) after the Consultant is selected but before the contract is executed, and (2) with persons other than those to whom the regulations of 24 CFR Part 135 require employment opportunities to be directed, were not filled to circumvent the Consultant's obligations under 24 CFR Part 135.
- vi. Noncompliance with HUD's regulations in 24 CFR part 135 may result in sanctions, termination of this contract for default, and debarment or suspension from future HUD assisted contracts.

2. Section 3 Compliance Goals

- i. Consultants and their sub-consultants may demonstrate compliance by committing to employ section 3 residents and by subcontracting with section 3 business concerns in accordance with the requirements of 24 CFR Part 135.

A Section 3 Business concern is a business concern under HUD Regulations:

- (a) 51 percent or more owned by section 3 residents; or

- ii. Consultant and sub-consultants may demonstrate compliance with the requirements for contracting with Section 3 Business Concerns by committing to award to Section 3 Business Concerns at least 10 percent of the total dollar amount of the contract awarded to the Consultant for building trades work for maintenance, repair, modernization or development of public housing, or for building trades work arising in connection with housing rehabilitation, housing construction and other public construction and at least 3 percent of the total dollar amount of all other Section 3 covered contracts.
- iii. In evaluating compliance with 24 CFR Part 135, Consultants and their sub-consultants have the burden of demonstrating to the greatest extent feasible their ability or inability to meet the goals set forth in 24 CFR Part 135 for providing training, employment and contracting opportunities to section 3 residents and section 3 business concerns.
- iv. Consultants and their sub-consultants are also encouraged to provide other economic opportunities to train and employ section 3 residents including, but not limited to, use of "upward mobility", "bridge" and trainee positions to fill vacancies, and hiring section 3 residents in part-time positions (24 CFR 135.40).

v. Section 3 Hiring

The Section 3 Regulations provide that Consultants and their sub-consultants demonstrate compliance by employing Section 3 Residents as 30 percent of the aggregate number of New Hires. A Consultant or sub-consultant is required to hire only when a New Hire is needed to perform the work.

(a) CHA Preferences

- i. Consultant agrees to comply with the above Section 3 requirements in accordance with the Consultant's Section 3 Utilization Plan, which shall be prepared by the Consultant and agreed to by CHA. CHA shall not be required to agree to the Consultant's Utilization Plan until the Consultant meets its burden to establish that it will comply with 24 CFR Part 135 and otherwise comply with CHA's Section 3 Policy (available on CHA's website) as may be required. Consultant's Section 3 Utilization Plan is attached hereto as Exhibit C and is incorporated by reference herein.

(hereinafter, "the Act"), and the CHA will be the copyright owner thereof and of all aspects, elements and components thereof in which copyright can subsist.

To the extent the Work Product does not qualify as "work made for hire," Consultant hereby irrevocably grants, conveys, bargains, sells, assigns, transfers and delivers to the CHA, its successors and assigns, all right, title and interest in and to the copyrights and all U.S. and foreign copyright registrations, copyright applications and copyright renewals therefor, and other intangible, intellectual property embodied in or pertaining to the Work contracted for under this Agreement, free and clear of any liens, claims or other encumbrances, to the fullest extent permitted by law. Consultant will execute assignments if requested by the CHA, without additional compensation. Consultant will document all work performed for the CHA and will turn such documentation over to the CHA on completion of the Consultant's services hereunder or earlier, if requested by the CHA. Consultant will make no use of the Work Product generated during the course of its work for the CHA during or after the term of this Agreement except to perform the work requested by the CHA.

To the extent the CHA is unable to effectively or economically use the Work Product without also using rights which are the subject of patent applications, patents, copyrights or other statutory protection owned by Consultant, Consultant grants to the CHA, a royalty-free, irrevocable, worldwide, nonexclusive license to make, have made, sell, use, reproduce, disclose, and publish such rights as necessary to fully utilize the Work Product.

In addition, Consultant agrees that it will not do anything contrary to the CHA's ownership in the Work Product or which might impair the value of such ownership. Consultant agrees to cooperate with the CHA in executing all documentation requested by the CHA to enable the CHA to perfect its right in and to the Work Product.

- B. All Work Product and CHA Documents provided to, or prepared or assembled by the Consultant in connection with the performance of the Consultant's Services under this Agreement shall be the property of the CHA. The Consultant shall establish precautions against the destruction of all such CHA Documents and shall be responsible for any loss or damage to the CHA Documents while in the Consultant's possession or use and the Consultant shall be responsible for restoring such CHA Documents at its sole expense. Except as provided above, if any CHA Documents destroyed while in the Consultant's possession are not restorable, the Consultant shall be responsible for any loss suffered by the CHA on account of such loss or damage.
- C. The Consultant shall deliver or cause to be delivered all Work Product and/or CHA Documents, including, but not limited to, all Deliverables prepared for the CHA under the Agreement, to the CHA promptly in accordance with the time limits prescribed in the Agreement, or if no time limit is specified, then upon reasonable demand thereof or upon termination or completion of the Consultant's Services or expiration of the Agreement hereunder. In the event of the failure by Consultant to make such delivery, then and in that event, the Consultant shall pay to the CHA any damages the CHA may sustain by reason thereof. The Consultant shall maintain all CHA Documents not previously delivered to the CHA for a period of three (3) years after final payment is made in connection with the Agreement.
- D. The Consultant shall maintain its books, records, documents, and other materials related to the performance of the Agreement for a period of three (3) years following the expiration or termination of the Agreement and after final payment has been made and all other pending matters are closed, and adopt accounting procedures and practices sufficient to reflect properly all costs of whatever nature claimed to have been incurred or anticipated to be incurred for or in connection with the performance of the Consultant's Services under the Agreement. The Consultant shall maintain its accounting system, books and records in a manner that complies with generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP"), consistently applied throughout.
- E. The provisions of Section 2.07 shall survive the expiration or termination of the Agreement.
- F. The Consultant shall flow down the provisions of this Section 2.07 titled "Ownership of Work Product, Documents, Records and Reports" to its sub-consultants at every tier.

The CHA retains an irrevocable right to independently or, through a third party, audit the Consultant's books and records pertaining to this Agreement and disallow any inappropriate billings upon written notice to the Consultant. In the event of a disallowance, the Consultant shall refund the amount disallowed to the CHA.

Section 2.09 Confidentiality

The Consultant agrees that all Deliverables, reports, documents or other information prepared or assembled by, or received or encountered by the Consultant, its employees, agents and sub-consultants pursuant to this Agreement are to remain confidential ("Confidential Information"). Further, the Consultant agrees that such Confidential Information shall not be made available to any individual or organization other than the CHA, HUD or courts of competent jurisdiction or administrative agencies pursuant to a subpoena without the prior written approval of the CHA. In the event the Consultant is presented with a subpoena regarding such Confidential Information, which may be in the Consultant's possession by reason of this Agreement, the Consultant must immediately give notice to the CHA's Chief Executive Officer and Chief Legal Officer with the understanding that the CHA will have the opportunity to contest such process by any means available to it before the Confidential Information is submitted to a court or other third party. The Consultant, however, is not obligated to withhold the delivery of such Confidential Information beyond the time ordered by the court or administrative agency, unless the subpoena or request is quashed or the time to produce is otherwise extended. The Consultant agrees that Section 2.09 of the Agreement shall survive the termination of the Agreement.

Section 2.10 Subcontracts and Assignments

Unless otherwise provided for herein, the Consultant shall not subcontract, assign otherwise delegate or otherwise transfer all or any part of its obligations under this Agreement or any part hereof without the prior written approval of the CHA. The absence of such prior written approval shall void the attempted subcontracting, assignment, delegation or transfer and shall have no legal effect on the Services or this Agreement.

The Consultant shall not transfer or assign, in whole or in part, any funds or claims due or which may become due under this Agreement without the prior written approval of the CHA. Any attempted transfer or assignments of any contract funds, either in whole or in part, or any interest therein, which shall be due or to become due to the Consultant, without the prior written approval of CHA shall be void and of no legal effect. The CHA expressly reserves the right to assign or otherwise transfer all or any part of its rights or interests hereunder.

Section 2.11 Patents and Copyrights

A. That it shall not discriminate against any person on the basis of religion and shall not limit employment or give preference in employment to persons on the basis of religion; and

B. That it shall not discriminate when rendering the Services hereunder against any person on the basis of religion and shall not limit such Services or give preference to persons on the basis of religion.

Section 2.13 Drug-Free Workplace

The Consultant shall establish procedures and policies to promote a "Drug-Free Workplace." Further, the Consultant shall notify all employees of its policy for maintaining a "Drug-Free Workplace," and the penalties that may be imposed for drug abuse violations occurring in the workplace. Further, the Consultant shall notify the CHA if any of its employees are convicted of a criminal drug offense in the workplace no later than ten (10) days after such conviction.

Section 3.03 Timeliness of Performance

The Consultant shall use its best efforts to provide the Services and Deliverables within the time limits required under this Agreement, or from time to time as otherwise required by the CHA. The Consultant and the CHA acknowledge that deadlines for certain Services provided for in this Agreement may be dictated by the requirements of agencies or events outside the control of the CHA and the Consultant, and the failure by the Consultant to meet deadlines may result in economic or other significant losses to the CHA. Therefore, except to the extent that the Consultant's inability to meet its deadlines is caused by the delay due to the CHA, by acts of God or other events outside the control of the Consultant, TIME IS OF THE ESSENCE, so that failure to perform in a timely manner shall be considered a material breach of the Agreement.

ARTICLE 4. COMPENSATION AND PAYMENT

Section 4.01 Compensation

For the satisfactory performance of the Services, the CHA shall pay the Consultant an amount not-to-exceed Four Hundred Forty Eight Thousand, Thirty Three and 00/100 Dollars ($448,033.00) for the two-year Base Term in accordance with Compensation Schedule attached hereto as Exhibit E. Compensation for each option year, if exercised, shall be in accordance with the Compensation Schedule, unless otherwise agreed upon in writing between the parties. Revisions to the Compensation Schedule shall require a written amendment to this Agreement in accordance with Section 9.03.

The Consultant agrees not to perform, and waives any and all claims for payment of work, materials, expenses, resources or other claims which would result in billings beyond the amounts set forth in Compensation Schedule. It is mutually understood and agreed by the parties that the above agreed upon compensation amount, which includes all reimbursable expenses, is the only compensation provided for in this agreement and there will be no additional, costs, fees or other type of profit allowable or paid under this Agreement without an express written amendment to the Agreement authorizing said additional work or expenses. The Consultant acknowledges an affirmative duty to monitor its performance and billings to ensure that the scope of work is completed within the previously agreed compensation amount.

Section 4.02 Payment

The Consultant shall submit an invoice within ten (10) business days after the end of each month during the term of this Agreement. All invoices shall be submitted to CHA's Accounts Payable Department, 60 E. Van Buren Street, 11th Floor, Chicago, Illinois 60605.

Each invoice shall contain back-up information as required by the CHA, including but not limited to, a brief description of the services provided during the invoice period. The CHA shall not be required to give approval or make payments pursuant to a submitted invoice unless the information required to be included with the invoice or that has been specifically requested by the CHA, and all the reporting requirements and Deliverables as set forth in this Agreement, or other reasonable and written requests by CHA for additional information, have been met.

CHA will make commercially reasonable efforts to make payment for services rendered under this Agreement within thirty (30) days after receipt and approval of each invoice submitted. All invoices shall be subject to review and approval by the CHA. If the CHA objects to all or any portion of any invoice, it shall notify the Consultant of its objection in writing and both parties shall make every effort to settle the disputed portion of the invoice. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the CHA may, at its option, pay the undisputed portion of any invoice without being deemed to have accepted the disputed portion. All disputes regarding invoices shall be handled in accordance with the paragraph no. 7 of the General Conditions.

Section 4.03 Non-Appropriation

Funding for this Agreement is subject to: (1) availability of federal funds from HUD, (2) the approval of funding by the CHA's Board of Commissioners, and (3) the Consultant's satisfactory performance of this Agreement. Furthermore, in the event that no funds or insufficient funds are appropriated and budgeted or appropriated funds are rescinded by Congress in any fiscal period of the term of this Agreement for payments to be made under this Agreement, then the CHA may notify the Consultant of such occurrence and this Agreement shall terminate on the earlier of the last day of the fiscal period for which sufficient appropriation was made or whenever the funds appropriated for payment under this Agreement are exhausted.

ARTICLE 5. DISPUTES

Section 5.01 Disputes

In the event of a dispute between the CHA and the Consultant involving this Agreement, both parties will attempt to negotiate a resolution. If the parties cannot resolve the dispute through negotiation, either party shall, unless otherwise set forth herein, submit the dispute in writing to CHA's Chief Procurement Officer in accordance with the provision set forth in Paragraph No. 7 of the HUD General Conditions for Non-Construction Contracts (Exhibit D).

ARTICLE 6. RISK MANAGEMENT

Section 6.01 Insurance

The Consultant agrees to comply with and meet or exceed all of CHA's insurance requirements that are set forth in Exhibit F, which is attached hereto and incorporated by reference herein as if fully set forth herein.

Section 6.02 Indemnification

The Consultant agrees to protect, defend, indemnify, keep save, and hold the CHA, its officers, officials, employees and agents and Consultants free and harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses, penalties, damages, settlements, environmental liability, costs, charges, professional fees, including attorney fees, or other expenses or liabilities of every kind, nature and character arising out of or relating to any and all claims, liens, demands, obligations, actions, suits, judgments or settlements, proceedings or causes of action of every kind, nature and character (collectively, "Claims") in connection with or arising directly or indirectly out of this Agreement and/or the acts and omissions of the Consultant, its agents, employees, and sub-consultants, including but not limited to, the enforcement of this indemnification provision. Without limiting the foregoing, any and all such Claims, relating to personal injury, death, damage to property, defects in material or workmanship, actual or alleged infringement of any patent, trademark, copyright or any other tangible or intangible personal or property right, or any actual or alleged violation of any applicable statute, ordinance, order, rule or regulation, or decree of any court, shall be included in the indemnity hereunder. The Consultant further agrees to investigate, handle, respond to, provide defense for and defend all suits for any and all Claims at its sole expense and agrees to bear all the costs and expenses related thereto, even if the Claims are considered groundless, false or fraudulent.

To the extent permissible by law, Consultant waives any limits on Consultant's liability that it would otherwise have by virtue of the Workers Compensation Act or any other law or judicial decision (specifically Kotecki v. Cyclops Welding Corporation, 146 Ill.2d 155 (1991)).

The CHA shall have the right, at Consultant's expense, to participate in the defense of any suit, without relieving the Consultant of any of its obligations under this indemnity provision. The Consultant expressly understands and agrees that the requirements set forth in this indemnity to protect, defend, indemnify, keep, save and hold the CHA free and harmless are separate from and not limited by the Consultant's responsibility to obtain, procure and maintain insurance pursuant to any other section of this Agreement. Further, the indemnities contained in this section shall survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 7. EVENTS OF DEFAULT, REMEDIES, TERMINATION, RIGHT TO OFFSET, SUSPENSION

Section 7.01 Events of Default Defined

Each of the following shall constitute an event of default:

- A. Any material misrepresentation, whether negligent or willful and whether in the inducement or in the performance, made by Consultant to the CHA.
- B. The Consultant's failure to perform any of its obligations under this Agreement including, but not limited to, the following:

 - 2. Failure to meet any of the performance standards set forth in this Agreement;
 - 3. Failure to perform the Services in a manner reasonably satisfactory to the CHA, or inability to perform the Services satisfactorily as a result of insolvency, filing for bankruptcy or assignment for the benefit of creditors;

- C. Any change in majority ownership or majority control of the Consultant without the prior written approval of the CHA, which written approval shall not be unreasonably withheld.
- D. The Consultant's default under any other agreement it may presently have or may enter into with the CHA during this Agreement. The Consultant acknowledges and agrees that in the event of a default under this Agreement the CHA may also declare a default under any such other agreements.

Section 7.02 Remedies

Upon the occurrence of any event of default which the Consultant fails to cure within thirty (30) calendar days after receipt of written notice given in accordance with the terms of this Agreement specifying the event of default or, if such event of default cannot be reasonably cured within thirty (30) calendar days after notice, or if the Consultant has failed to commence and continue diligent efforts to cure such default within thirty (30) days, the CHA may, at its sole option, declare the Consultant in default. Whether to declare the Consultant in default is within the sole discretion of the CHA and neither that decision nor the factual basis for it is subject to review or challenge under the disputes provision of this Agreement. Written notification of the default, and any intention of the CHA to terminate the Agreement, shall be provided to the Consultant and such decision shall be final and effective upon the Consultant's receipt of such notice pursuant to Article 10. Upon the giving of such notice, the CHA may invoke any or all of the following remedies:

- A. The right to terminate this Agreement as to any or all of the Services yet to be performed effective at a time specified by the CHA.
- B. The right to pursue any and all remedies, legal and/or equitable, available to the CHA.
- C. The right to withhold all or any part of Consultant's compensation hereunder with respect to Services not completed in accordance with the terms hereof prior to the termination of this Agreement.
- D. The right to deem Consultant non-responsible in future contracts to be awarded by the CHA.
- E. The right to take over and complete the Services or any part thereof as agent for and at the cost of Consultant, either directly or through others.

If the CHA considers it to be in its best interests, it may elect not to declare default or to terminate the Agreement hereunder. The parties acknowledge that this provision is solely for the benefit of the CHA and that if the CHA permits Consultant to continue to provide the Services despite one or more events of default, the Consultant shall in no way be relieved of any of its responsibilities, duties or obligations under this Agreement nor shall the CHA waive or relinquish any of its rights.

The remedies under the terms of this Agreement are not intended to be exclusive of any other remedies provided, but each and every such remedy shall be cumulative and shall be in addition to any other remedies, existing now or hereafter, at law, in equity or by statute. No delay or failure to exercise any right or power accruing upon any event of default or acquiescence therein, and every such right and power may be exercised from time to time and as often as may be deemed expedient.

Section 7.03 Termination for Convenience

The CHA may terminate this Agreement, or all or any portion of the Services to be performed under it, at any time by written notice from the CHA to Consultant when the Agreement may be deemed to be no longer in the best interests of the CHA. If the CHA elects to terminate the Agreement in full, all Services to be performed hereunder shall cease effective ten (10) calendar days after the date written notice has been provided. The Consultant shall continue to render the services until the effective date of termination. No cost incurred by the Consultant after the effective date of termination shall be allowed. Subject to performance within the requisite performance standards and audits of invoices as set forth above, the CHA shall pay to Consultant on a pro-rata basis, costs incurred for Services rendered through the date of termination. This Section 7.03 is not subject to Article 5 of this Agreement.

The Consultant shall flow down the provisions of Section 7.03 in all of its contracts with its sub-consultants, if any.

Section 7.04 Suspension

The CHA may at any time request that the Consultant suspend its Services, or any part thereof, by giving ten (10) days prior written notice to the Consultant or upon no notice in the event of an emergency. No costs incurred after the effective date of such suspension shall be allowed. The Consultant shall promptly resume its performance of such Services under the same terms and conditions as stated herein upon written notice by the CHA.

Section 7.05 No Damages for Delay

The Consultant agrees that it shall make no claims against the CHA for damages, charges, interest, additional costs or fees incurred by reason of delays or suspension of work caused by the CHA in the performance of its obligations under this Agreement. The Consultant's sole and exclusive remedy for delays or suspension of work caused by the CHA is an extension of time equal to the duration of delay or suspension to allow the Consultant to perform its obligation under this Agreement.

Section 7.06 Right to Offset

To the extent permitted by applicable law:

- A. In connection with performance under the Agreement, the CHA may offset any incremental costs and other damages the CHA incurs in any and all of the following circumstances:
 - i. If the CHA terminates the Agreement for default or any other reason resulting from the Consultant's performance or non-performance;
 - ii. If the CHA exercises any of its remedies under Section 7.02 of the Agreement;
 - iii. If the CHA has any credits due or has made any overpayments under the Agreement.

The CHA may offset these incremental costs and any other damages by use of any payment due for Services completed before the CHA terminated the Agreement or before the CHA exercised any remedies. If the amount offset is insufficient to cover those incremental costs and other damages, the Consultant shall be liable for and must promptly remit to the CHA the balance upon written demand for it. The right to offset is in addition to and not a limitation of any other remedies available to the CHA.

- B. Without breaching this Agreement, the CHA may set off a portion of the compensation due under this Agreement in an amount equal to the amount of any liquidated or unliquidated damages or claims that the CHA has against the Consultant arising out of any other agreements between the CHA and the Consultant or otherwise unrelated to this Agreement. If and when the CHA's claims against the Consultant are finally adjudicated in a court of competent jurisdiction or otherwise resolved, the CHA will reimburse the Consultant to the extent of the amount the CHA has offset against this Agreement inconsistently with the determination or resolution.

- I. That the Consultant has disclosed any and all relevant information to the CHA and the Consultant understands and agrees that any certification, affidavit or acknowledgment made under oath or failure to disclose in connection with this Agreement is made under penalty of perjury and, if false, is also cause for termination of this Agreement.

Section 8.04 Conflict of Interest

- A. No member of the governing body of the CHA or other units of government and no other officer, employee, or agent of the CHA or other unit of government who exercises any functions or responsibilities in connection with the Services to which this Agreement pertains, shall have any personal interest, direct, or indirect, in this Agreement. No member of or delegate to the Congress of the United States or the Illinois General Assembly or CHA employee shall be entitled to any share or part of this Agreement or to any financial benefit to arise from it.
- B. The Consultant covenants that it and its employees, or sub-consultants, presently have no interest and shall acquire no interest, direct or indirect, in this Agreement which would conflict in any manner or degree with the performance of the Services hereunder. The Consultant further covenants that during the performance of this Agreement, no person having any such interest shall be employed. Consultant agrees that if the CHA determines that any of Consultant's services for others conflict with the Services that the Consultant is to render for the CHA under this Agreement; Consultant shall terminate such other services immediately upon request of the CHA.
