Section 1. Lease Term and Amount of Rent

- (a) The initial term of this Lease is 12 months, unless otherwise modified or terminated in accordance with this Lease. The Lease is automatically renewable except for noncompliance with the community service requirements or participation in an economic self-sufficiency program for applicable households.
- (b) The Tenant Rent amount is stated in the Lease #5 above. Tenant Rent shall remain in effect unless adjusted by the CHA LLC, in accordance with this Lease. The Tenant Rent amount shall be determined by the CHA LLC in compliance with United States Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) regulations, RAD Program requirements, the Project Based Voucher (PBV) Section 8 Program and the CHA LLC approved Rent Policy.
- (c) Each time a resident's check for Tenant Rent is not honored (due to insufficient funds) the CHA LLC will collect a fee of $30. If the resident's check is not honored three times, the CHA LLC will not accept personal checks during the remainder of that lease term.
- (d) During the RAD conversion process, residents transitioning from flat rent to income-based Tenant Rent that experience a monthly increase in Tenant Rent of more than 10 percent or $25 (whichever is greater) solely due to the RAD transition will have Tenant Rent increases phased in over a five-year period. Tenant Rent adjustments under the five-year phase-in schedule will apply to the Total Tenant Payment (TTP) at a rate of 20 percent per year.
- (e) Notice of Tenant Rent Adjustment and Grievance Rights: When the CHA LLC makes any increase in the Tenant Rent amount, the CHA LLC shall provide written notice stating the effective date of the Tenant Rent adjustment to the resident no less than 30 days prior to the effective date. If the Tenant Rent decreases, the CHA LLC may provide less than 30 days' notice if necessary, to comply with the requirements set forth in Lease Section 4(d) 1 and 2. The resident may ask for an explanation of the specific grounds of the decision of the CHA LLC concerning Tenant Rent, dwelling size, or eligibility. If the resident does not agree with the decision, the resident shall have the right to request a hearing under the CHA RAD Grievance Procedure.

Section 2. Charges in Addition to Rent

- (a) In addition to Tenant Rent, the resident is responsible for the payment of any other charges not limited to those specified in the Lease. The Notice of Charges in Addition to Rent shall advise the resident that he/she has the right to an explanation of the charge(s), and that disputes about charge(s) may be resolved through the CHA RAD Grievance Procedure.
- (b) Reasonable Accommodations: Qualified persons who request reasonable accommodations, in the form of equipment or devices necessary for the treatment of the disability or to facilitate access to the dwelling unit, common areas, community facilities, or grounds, will not be charged for the reasonable accommodation.
- (c) Charges in addition to Tenant Rent are due on the first day of the month after the CHA LLC has provided the resident a minimum of 14 calendar days' notice. The additional charges will be added to and become part of the resident's monthly rental account if not paid based on the notice received. The resident may be granted the opportunity to enter into a reasonable payment agreement based upon the resident's monthly adjusted income and payment history. Charges in addition to Tenant Rent can include but are not limited to:
 1. Payment of utility charges.
 - a) For resident-paid utilities, the resident may pay for some or all utilities directly to the utility company and receive a monthly utility allowance, which is factored in the Tenant Rent calculation, as specified in Lease #9 above.
 - b) Pursuant to CHA Adm. Plan, Chapter 18, Section IV.B.4., utility reimbursement payments are made by the CHA LLC directly to the utility provider on the resident's behalf when the Tenant Rent calculation, after subtracting the utility allowance, produces a negative amount. If the resident's actual utility bill is less than the utility reimbursement, the resident will receive the savings in the form of a credit on the utility provider's billing statement. If the resident's utility bill is greater than the utility reimbursement, the resident must pay the excess amount directly to the utility provider.
 - c) For CHA LLC -paid utilities, residents must pay any charges for excess use of utilities (i.e. charges over the monthly utility allowance granted).
 2. Maintenance costs. The resident will be charged for services or repairs due to intentional, negligent, or reckless damage to the dwelling unit, assigned areas, common areas, or grounds beyond normal wear and tear caused by the resident, resident authorized members, resident's pet(s) and animal(s), or guest(s) or other person(s) under the resident's control. Charges will be made as listed on the Schedule of Maintenance Charges posted by the CHA LLC, or when work is not listed on the Schedule of Maintenance Charges, charges will be equal to the actual cost to the CHA LLC for the labor and materials needed to complete the work.
 3. Installation charges. The CHA LLC shall charge for the installation of approved resident supplied air conditioners and other approved appliances or equipment that require special wiring or structural changes to the dwelling unit or premises.

Section 3. Security Deposit

- (a) The exact dollar amount of the security deposit is noted in Lease, #7 above. Existing residents who have not paid a security deposit must pay a deposit of $75.00 within three months of signing the Lease. Security deposits shall not be increased even if Tenant Rent increases.
- (b) The CHA LLC shall deposit the security deposit in an interest-bearing account as listed in #7 above, supply the resident with information of the account and credit the resident's account on an annual basis, in accordance with state and local law and ordinances.
- (c) Following state and local laws and ordinances, after proper notice that the unit has been vacated the CHA LLC shall complete a move-out inspection and return the security deposit with any interest to the resident. The security deposit is subject to the deductions stated in this section and with state and local law. If deductions are made, the CHA LLC shall mail an itemized statement of the reason(s) for the deductions to the last known address of the resident vacating the unit, within 30 calendar days.

The CHA LLC may use the security deposit at the expiration or termination of this Lease for the following:

1. As collection for any Tenant Rent that has not been validly withheld or deducted based on state or federal law or local ordinance; and
 2. To collect the cost of repairing any damages caused by the resident, resident authorized members, resident's pet(s) and animal(s), or guest(s), or other person(s) under the resident's control, excluding reasonable wear and tear.
- (d) Residents transferring from one CHA LLC unit to another unit within the same development (intra- development) will have the security deposit credited to the new unit. If the resident transfers from one CHA LLC development to a different development (inter-development) the CHA LLC will refund the resident's security deposit minus any damages assessed. The resident will be responsible for paying a security deposit for the new dwelling unit equal to the original security deposit amount at the previous unit. If a security deposit was not collected on the previous unit a new security deposit equal to the minimum Tenant Rent must be collected. CHA Adm. Plan, Chapter 18, Section V.M.
 - (e) The security deposit shall not be used by the resident to pay the first or last month's Tenant Rent.
 - (f) Security deposits will transfer from public housing to Section 8 in the property management system.

Section 4. Scheduled and Interim Re-examination of Tenant Rent, Dwelling Size, and Eligibility

The Tenant Rent amount as stated in Lease #5 above is due each month until the Tenant Rent amount is modified or amended after a re-examination, as described in CHA Adm. Plan, Chapter 18, Sections IV.E. and F. Any changes in the lease must be in writing and result in a lease amendment or a newly signed lease.

(a) Scheduled Re-examinations:

Residents and all authorized members will be re-examined to determine eligibility for continued occupancy. As part of this re-examination, the resident and all adult authorized members of the household, including any live-in aide, will undergo a criminal background check and credit report review. CHA LLC will inform all residents how to obtain a free copy of their credit check. The Property Manager will provide a copy of the criminal background check to all residents who have been denied eligibility for continued occupancy due to criminal activity.

The resident must supply the CHA LLC with truthful written information about family composition, citizenship and/or eligible immigration status, age of resident authorized members, income and source of income of all resident authorized members, assets and related information necessary to determine eligibility, annual income, adjusted income, Tenant Rent, and dwelling size. Failure to supply such information or misrepresentation of information is a serious violation of the terms of the Lease and may result in lease termination.

The resident and resident adult authorized members agree to comply with reasonable CHA LLC requests for verification by signing releases or authorizations for third-party sources, including HUD Form 9886 and the CHA Authorization and Consent Release Form, presenting documents for review, or providing other suitable forms of verification. This information will be used by the CHA LLC to decide whether the amount of the Tenant Rent should change, whether the dwelling size is correct for the resident's needs, and whether the resident and all authorized family members are in compliance with the terms and conditions of the lease agreement. Failure to sign releases, including HUD Form 9886 and the CHA Authorization and Consent Release Form, is a serious violation of the terms of the Lease and can result in lease termination.

(b) Interim Re-examinations:

As specified in Chapter 18, Section IV.E. and F. of the CHA Adm. Plan, if there are any changes in a family's income or household composition between scheduled re-examinations, an interim re-examination may be conducted. Certain changes require advance approval by the CHA LLC.

1. Residents are required to report all changes in family composition to the property manager within 10 calendar days of the occurrence.
2. Failure to report changes within the 10 calendar days may result in a retroactive rent increase, but not a retroactive credit or rent reduction.
3. In order to qualify for rent reductions, residents must report income decreases.
4. Residents are required to report interim increases in income. If a resident was granted an interim rent reduction, he/she must report an interim increase in income within 10 calendar days.

(c) Hardship Suspension/Exemption from the minimum rent:

A minimum rent hardship suspension will be granted to a resident who requests and can document, that due to a financial hardship he/she is unable to pay the minimum rent amount. If a resident paying minimum rent requests a hardship suspension, the CHA LLC must suspend the minimum rent, effective the following month, and determine whether the resident qualifies for hardship exemption. A hardship suspension from the minimum rent does not mean the rent amount becomes zero (0). The family is required to pay the greater of 30% of adjusted monthly income or 10% of gross monthly income when that amount is less than the minimum rent. When appropriate, a hardship exemption will be granted considering the basis of the hardship and the amount the resident should be obligated to pay based on their income.

(d) Effective date of rent adjustments:

1. Timely Reporting (Within 10 calendar days of the occurrence)
 - Decreases - First day of the month after the decrease in income is first reported to

- the property manager.
- Increases - First day of the second month following the increase in income.
2. Late Reporting (After 10 calendar days of the occurrence)
- Decreases - The household is not entitled to a rent credit for any prior monthly rent before the decrease in income is reported to the property manager. Any required earned income disallowance (EID) period will occur, whether reported in a timely manner or not.
 - Increases - The household will receive a retroactive charge for an increase in income that would have resulted in a rent increase and was not reported timely, retroactive to the month after the change should have been reported.
3. Increases in rent will not affect a resident's rent until the next scheduled reexamination.
- (e) Retroactive rent charges will be applied only where it is found that the resident or resident authorized members have (1) misrepresented or omitted the facts on which the rent is based, so that the rent the resident is paying is less than the rent the resident should have been charged; or (2) is late in reporting in accordance with CHA Adm. Plan, Chapter 18, Section IV.M.. The increase in rent shall be applied retroactively to the first of the second month following the event in which the misrepresentation or failure to report occurred. Failure to pay the retroactive charge may result in termination of tenancy.
- (f) If the error in rent calculation is caused by information reported by the resident at admission or any re-examination, resulting in an overpayment by the resident, the resident's rent will decrease effective the month after reporting. Less than a 30-day written notice, if necessary, is allowable to correct the error. The resident will not receive a retroactive credit.
- (g) When the CHA LLC makes a rent calculation error at admission or re-examination and it causes a household's rent to be too low, any increase in rent will not go into effect retroactively. The increase in rent will go into effect the first day of the second month after the CHA LLC error is discovered and proper notice of the rent increase has been given to the household pursuant to Lease, Section 1(e). If the CHA LLC's rent calculation error resulted in an overpayment by the resident, the resident has a choice between a check for overpayment or a credit to their account.

Section 5. General Conditions for Use and Occupancy of the Dwelling Unit

- (a) The dwelling unit shall be the sole domicile of the resident and resident authorized members.
- (b) The resident and resident authorized members shall have the right to exclusive use and occupancy of the dwelling unit. The resident and resident's authorized members shall not assign the Lease, nor sublease the dwelling unit.
- (c) The dwelling unit must be used only as a private residence solely for the resident and resident authorized members named on the Lease. The resident must request and receive prior written approval from the CHA LLC for the resident to use their dwelling unit for legal profit- making activities incidental to the primary use of the dwelling unit.
- (d) The resident shall have the right to allow individual guests or visitors for a period up to 30 calendar days in a calendar year; however, each visit cannot exceed 14 consecutive calendar days. If the resident wishes a guest to remain longer than seven consecutive days or more than 30 calendar days in a calendar year, the resident must submit a written request to the property manager. The CHA LLC will not unreasonably deny a request for an extension.

- (e) The CHA LLC may ban/bar visitors who engage in any behavior that threatens the health, safety, or right to peaceful enjoyment of the premises by other residents, CHA employees, agents of the CHA, or other persons, including criminal activity cases. Visitors banned for such behavior, will be restricted from entering CHA and CHA LLC properties. A resident will be notified by CHA LLC and/or property manager when a guest of his/hers has been banned. Residents may grieve the CHA's decision to ban a visitor in accordance with the CHA RAD Grievance Procedure.
- (f) Violation of any of the terms of this Lease is cause for termination of tenancy.

Section 6

Pet and Assistance Animal Ownership:

- (a) All the following pet policy provisions will also apply to assistance animals except no application fee or pet deposit is required and assistance animals can accompany their owners to common areas.
- (b) Prior written approval is required to bring any common household pets or assistance animals on the premises in accordance with CHA Adm. Plan, Chapter 18, Section V.R. and this Lease section. Failure to comply with the requirements of Section V.R. or this Lease section may be cause for termination of tenancy.
- (c) Only one (1) cat or (1) dog, an aquarium larger than one (1) gallon but no larger than twenty (20) gallons, or a pair of birds, gerbils, hamsters, rabbits, or guinea pigs are permitted on the property. Cats are limited to 15 pounds (at adult weight). Dogs are limited to 35 pounds and 24 inches in height from the floor to the top of their head (at adult weight and height).
- (d) Residents must pay a non-refundable pet application fee of $50.00 for pets at the time the pet application is submitted. (e.g. a pet application fee for each of the following: a dog, a cat, an aquarium larger than 1 gallon and up to 20 gallons, or a pair of caged birds, gerbils, hamsters, rabbits, or guinea pigs.)
- (e) Residents shall pay a refundable pet deposit 50.00 for an aquarium of fish or turtles and/or for one or a pair of birds, gerbils, hamsters, or guinea pigs. Residents shall pay a refundable pet deposit of $100.00 for a dog or for a cat.
- (f) Pet deposits are refunded within 45 calendar days after the resident has moved from the property or the resident no longer has ownership of the pet. CHA LLC shall have the right to use the pet deposit to pay reasonable expenses attributable to damage caused by the pet. Such expenses can include, but are not limited to, fumigation of the unit and cost of repairs and replacement to the unit. CHA LLC will notify the resident in writing of any deductions taken from the pet deposit within 30 calendar days.
- (g) Prior written approval and verification of the need for an assistance animal from a knowledgeable professional and confirmation by CHA LLC is required before bringing an assistance animal on the property. Once approved, the qualified resident with disabilities will be exempt from the pet application fee and pet deposit. The assistance animal may not be subject to the size and weight limitations. However, qualified residents with disabilities who have an assistance animal are required to comply with all other parts of the CHA Adm. Plan, Chapter 18, Section V.R. and this Lease and will be responsible for all actions caused by the assistance animal.

- (h) For cats and dogs, including assistance animals, the resident must provide proof of having current rabies inoculations and verify the pet/assistance animal is spayed/neutered or a letter from a veterinarian giving a medical reason why the procedure cannot be performed for each reexamination. For dogs, the resident must provide proof of having a current City of Chicago Dog License and provide verification of the dog's breed. Cats and dogs must wear a current rabies tag and an identification tag specifying the resident's name, address, and telephone number at all times.
- (i) Animals Not Permitted: Breeds of canines (full or partial) used for attack or defense purposes including, but not limited to, Rottweilers, Pit Bull Terriers, Chows, and Doberman Pinschers. Overly aggressive cats, with a known or suspected propensity, tendency, or disposition to unprovoked attacks, will also be excluded. Certain types of birds, including but not limited to hawks, eagles, condors, and pigeons, are not allowed. Any poisonous or life-threatening reptiles and exotic or dangerous animals (e.g., snakes, iguanas, pigs, wild animals such as wolves and big cats, etc.) are not considered common household pets and are not allowed on CHA or CHA LLC property under any circumstances. It is a material violation of the lease to breed any animals in the unit. Failure to comply is cause for lease termination.
- (j) All residents owning pets and/or assistance animals are responsible for proper disposal of fecal waste in a manner that will not damage or deface the unit or premises. Failure of the resident to remove and dispose of waste will result in a $20.00 charge per occurrence. Continued violation is cause for lease termination.
- (k) Pets are not permitted in common areas (e.g., solariums, craft rooms, social rooms, laundry rooms, maintenance space, playgrounds, TV lounges, etc.). Lobby areas are available to pets for entering and exiting the property only. Assistance animals for qualified persons with disabilities are exempt from this restriction.
- (l) All residents owning pets and/or assistance animals must be able to care for their animals, keep them and the units in a safe and healthy condition, and be responsible for any damage, beyond reasonable wear and tear, caused by the pets and/or assistance animals; including, but are not limited to, fumigation of the unit and cost of repairs and replacement to the unit. Residents owning pets and/or assistance animals must meet these requirements on their own or as part of a reasonable accommodation, with assistance from some source other than the CHA or CHA LLC. It is a material violation of the lease for a resident to neglect, abuse, or abandon their animal(s).

Section 7. Housing Transfers

The CHA LLC has the authority to relocate a resident and resident's authorized members to another unit in the same or different development under the CHA transfer policy pursuant to CHA Adm. Plan, Chapter 18, Section V.H. For a detailed list and application of each type of transfer, see CHA Adm. Plan, Section V.H. through Section V.O.

- (a) Failure to transfer when required under an emergency or mandatory transfer may subject a family to lease termination.
- (b) Failure to maintain lease compliancy will result in denial of the transfer and may be cause for lease termination.
- (c) For voluntary or resident-initiated transfers, refusal of a unit offer with or without good cause will result in the removal of the household from the transfer wait list. Residents will not be able to request any of these transfer types for 12 months from the date of removal letter.

- (d) Residents are solely responsible for all costs associated with Resident-Initiated transfers and Incentive Choose to Own Program transfers.
- (e) The CHA LLC may revise the transfer categories to create and implement special programs and/or incentives for the benefit of residents.

Section 8. Resident's Obligations

The resident and all resident authorized members must comply with this section. Failure to comply will subject the family to lease termination. A criminal conviction is not needed to demonstrate serious violations of the Lease. Residents and resident authorized members are obligated:

- (a) To comply with all responsibilities imposed upon the resident and resident authorized members by applicable provisions of the building and housing codes materially affecting health and safety, and to allow the CHA LLC to make necessary inspections of the resident's dwelling unit pursuant to CHA Adm. Plan, Chapter 18, Section IV.G.

- (d) To keep the dwelling unit and other such areas as may be assigned to the resident for the family's exclusive use in a clean and safe condition, and to cure housekeeping violations within 30 calendar days of notice.
- (e) To buy and install working batteries in smoke and carbon monoxide detectors within the unit.
- (f) To act and cause resident authorized members, pets/animals, visitors, and/or guests to behave in a manner that will not disturb other residents' peaceful enjoyment of their accommodations and that will contribute to maintaining the building and/or development in a decent, safe, and sanitary condition. This includes refraining from alcohol abuse, or any other activity that interferes with the health, safety, or right to peaceful enjoyment of the premises by other residents, CHA employees, agents of the CHA, or other persons.
- (g) To use in a reasonable manner all electrical, plumbing, sanitary, heating, ventilation, air conditioning, and other appurtenances, including elevators. Reasonable behavior includes, but is not limited to, not splicing, stealing, running extension cords, or other wiring throughout the property to produce utility connections.

3. To immediately report to the management office:

4. Resident further agrees that Resident shall be responsible for damage to the unit and Resident's property as well as injury to Resident and Resident's Invitees resulting from Resident's failure to comply with the terms of this paragraph.
 - (i) To keep dogs, cats, other common household pets, and assistance animals on the premises, only in agreement with the Pet Policy located in CHA Adm. Plan, Chapter 18, Section V.R. and Lease Section 6. Pet and Assistant Animal Ownership requires prior written consent and approval of a pet application, which will become part of this Lease.
 - (j) To dispose of all ashes, garbage, rubbish, and other waste from the dwelling unit in a sanitary and safe manner.
 - (k) To remove from CHA LLC property any vehicles owned or in the control of the household, that are without valid registration and inspection stickers. To refrain from parking any vehicles in any right-of-way, fire lane, or other CHA LLC property not designated for parking purposes. Any inoperable or unlicensed vehicle as described above will be removed from CHA LLC property at the resident's expense. Automobile repairs are not permitted on CHA LLC property.
 - (l) To not change locks or install new locks or anti-theft devices without the written approval of the CHA LLC. If the CHA LLC approves the request to install such locks, the resident agrees to provide a key for each lock. When this Lease ends, the resident agrees to return all keys to the dwelling unit to the property manager. The CHA LLC will charge the resident $35 for each key not returned.
 - (m) To abide by the necessary and reasonable policies and procedures established by the CHA LLC, for the benefit and well-being of the housing development and the residents, which shall be posted in the management office and incorporated by reference in the Lease.
 - (n) To refrain from and cause resident authorized members and guests to refrain from:
 1. Engaging in any activity, including physical and verbal assaults, that threaten the health, safety, or right to peaceful enjoyment of the premises by other residents, CHA employees, agents of the CHA, or persons.
 2. Engaging in any criminal activity that threatens the life, health, or property of other residents, CHA employees, agents of the CHA, or other persons.
 - a) If a resident or an authorized member of a resident's lease is a victim of domestic violence, sexual assault/violence, dating violence, or stalking, engaged in by a member of the resident's household or any guest or other person under the resident's control, then this alone will not be a cause for termination of the tenancy or occupancy rights.

- b) The CHA LLC may remove a member from the Lease, without regard to whether the member is a signatory to the Lease, in order to evict, remove, terminate occupancy rights, or terminate assistance to any individual who is a resident or authorized member, and who engages in criminal acts of physical violence against the resident or other authorized members or against others, without evicting, removing, terminating assistance to or otherwise penalizing the victim (authorized family member) of such violence, who is also a resident or authorized member.

- c) Once notified, the CHA LLC retains authority to honor court orders addressing the rights of access to or control of the property, including civil protection orders: (a) issued to protect the victim (authorized family member), and (b) issued to address the distribution or possession of property among authorized family members in cases where a family breaks up.
 - d) The CHA LLC maintains the right and authority to evict a resident or authorized member of the resident's household, including a victim of domestic violence, sexual assault/violence, dating violence, or stalking for any violation of the lease not premised on the act or acts of violence in question. The CHA LLC must not subject an individual (authorized family member) who is or has been a victim of domestic violence, sexual assault/violence, dating violence, or stalking to a more demanding standard than other residents in determining whether to evict or terminate.
 - e) The CHA LLC maintains the authority to terminate the tenancy of any resident if the CHA LLC can demonstrate that the resident, authorized members of the resident's household, any guest or other person under the resident's control, are causing an actual and imminent threat to other residents, CHA employees, agents of the CHA, or other persons.
3. Engaging in any drug-related criminal activity on or near CHA LLC premises. For purposes of the Lease, the term drug-related criminal activity means the illegal manufacture, sale, distribution, use, possession, storage, service, delivery, or cultivation of a controlled substance, including medical marijuana.
 4. To personally refrain from and to cause resident authorized members, guests and other persons under the residents' control to not display, use, control, or possess anywhere on or near CHA LLC property any firearms, ammunition, or other weapons in violation of Federal, State, and local laws. Unless required by lawful employment, and in accordance with law, it shall be a lease violation to:

Display, intentionally or unintentionally, a weapon while on or near CHA LLC Property, or Hide or conceal, intentionally or unintentionally, a weapon on one's person or belongings while on CHA LLC Property, or Fire or otherwise discharge, intentionally or unintentionally, the weapon while on or near CHA LLC Property, or

Cook County Electronic Monitoring Program: Resident must notify the CHA LLC within 48 hours of the return of an authorized member who is a participant in the Cook County Electronic Monitoring Program to his/her unit. Failure of the resident to notify the property manager in a timely fashion is grounds for lease termination.  2. Illinois Department of Corrections Electronic Monitoring Program: Felons participating in the Illinois Department of Corrections (IDOC) Electronic Monitoring Program who are not authorized member(s) of the resident's current lease are barred from entering or residing in the resident's unit. Allowing residency of a felon participating in the IDOC electronic monitoring program in the resident's unit who is not on the lease as an authorized member for that unit is grounds for lease termination.

The CHA LLC will not approve lease addition requests for adults. Exceptions will be made for legally protected relationships or extenuating circumstances determined at the sole discretion of the CHA LLC. Any such approval is required prior to bringing the person(s) into the household. Person(s) residing in the household without CHA LLC approval will be considered unauthorized occupants, and the entire household will be subject to lease termination.
- (c) Prior written approval to add a live-in aide is required and shall not be unreasonably refused. Live-in aides are required to meet all admissions screening criteria except employment. Per CHA Adm. Plan, Chapter 18, Section V.D. in accordance to the Lease, a live-in aide resides in the unit for essential care and necessary supportive services to one or more elderly, near elderly residents, or a resident with a disability. A live-in aide is not required to share a bedroom with another member of the household and may be assigned his/her own bedroom. A live-in aide may not move into a unit if it would create overcrowding as defined by CHA occupancy standards. However, a resident may be transferred as reasonable accommodation to allow a Live-in aide. If the addition of the live-in aide will not overcrowd the current unit, the CHA LLC will not transfer the resident or increase the bedroom size. A resident's bedroom size will not be adjusted to allow the family members of a live-in aide; a live-in aide's family members cannot cause overcrowding in the unit. Live-in aides have no rights as remaining family members regardless of the familial relationship and upon the death, eviction, departure, or abandonment of the assisted resident family member, the live-in aide must leave the unit. Failure to leave is cause for eviction.
- (d) The CHA LLC shall approve or disapprove a resident's request to allow a foster child, foster adult, kinship care child, live-in aide, or adult to be added to the lease and move into the dwelling unit within 30 business days of receipt of the completed request package by the CHA Occupancy Department. This time period can be extended if there is a delay beyond the control of the CHA LLC or the resident.
- (e) Resident authorized members who move out of the dwelling unit, for any reason, shall be reported by the resident to the CHA LLC in writing within 10 calendar days of the occurrence. The resident shall complete a Move-Out Affidavit.
- (f) Remaining family members: If the head of household dies, continued occupancy by remaining family members is only permissible if there is at least one family member on the Lease living in the household who can pass applicant screening and is 18 years old or over or an emancipated minor. The household must be lease compliant at the time of the request. Remaining family members must have lived in the unit as an authorized occupant on the Lease, for a minimum of three consecutive years (36 months) to become the head of household, and without any unauthorized extended absences. If the entire household has resided in public housing for less than three consecutive years, prior to RAD conversion, the CHA LLC will consider the timeframe the family has lived in housing as the minimum time period for determining the rights of the remaining head of household status.

- (g) If the head of the household leaves the unit without housing subsidy assistance (e.g. institutionalization, forming a new household in unsubsidized housing and giving their RRC or Post 10/1/99 RRC rights to the remaining family members with written documentation, etc.), the CHA LLC may permit the remaining family members to continue to occupy the unit if there is one or more family members who is 18 years old or over on the Lease, living in the unit for a minimum of three consecutive years (36 months), and who can pass applicant screening. The household must be in lease compliancy at the time of request. Continued occupancy by family members is not allowed when the head of household's move from the unit was initiated under the CHA Leaseholder Housing Choice and Relocation Rights Contract 10/1/99, the CHA Relocation Rights Contract for Families with Initial Occupancy after 10/1/99, or Victims Assistance.
- (h) When a head of household leaves a household with children or adults with a disability who cannot assume the role of the head of household, and there is no remaining family member to assume the head of household role, the lease will be terminated. Subject to program eligibility and voucher availability, the CHA LLC may offer an HCV unit to the permanent legal custodial guardian.
- (i) A new head of household, under the above paragraph (g), will be charged for any arrearages incurred by the former head of household. The CHA LLC reserves the right to establish a payment plan with the new head of household. Consideration will be given to whether an eviction for arrearages would result in the separation of the family.
- (j) If this Lease is an extension of occupancy by the resident's household under a prior Lease or Leases with the CHA, any amounts due under the prior Lease or Leases may be charged and collected as if the amounts due occurred under this Lease.

Section 11. CHA LLC Obligations

- (i) Reasonable Accommodations for Residents with Disabilities: Upon request and verification for structural modification or policy accommodation by a qualified resident with disabilities, or head of household on behalf of a family member with disabilities, the CHA LLC will provide reasonable accommodations after determining that making the requested modification or accommodation would not result in a fundamental alteration in the nature of its program or an undue financial and administrative burden. If providing such modification or accommodation would result in a fundamental program alteration or undue financial and/or administrative burden, the CHA LLC will take alternate action to accommodate the individual. Reasonable accommodations will be provided pursuant CHA Policy and the CHA Reasonable Accommodations Policy and Procedure.
- (j) Where applicable, to abide by the terms and conditions of the CHA Leaseholder Housing Choice and Relocation Rights Contract 10/1/99 and the CHA Relocation Rights Contract for Families with Initial Occupancy after 10/1/99.

- (b) When the resident calls to request maintenance on the dwelling unit, the CHA LLC shall acknowledge receipt of the request within 24 hours and the resident will be provided a 48-hour window in which work orders will be completed. A request for maintenance creates permission for the CHA LLC to enter the unit and perform the maintenance. If the resident is not at home when the CHA LLC performs the requested maintenance, the CHA LLC shall leave a copy of the completed work order in the unit.
- (c) Aside from maintenance requests, the CHA LLC shall give all residents a minimum 48 hours written notice that the CHA LLC intends to enter the dwelling unit and state the reason for entry. Qualified residents with disabilities will be provided notice in the alternative format requested by the resident (e.g. Braille, large print, audiotape, etc.).

- (d) If necessary, notices for entry into the premises for extermination purposes can be posted to the resident's front door.
- (e) The CHA LLC may enter the resident's dwelling unit at any time without notice when there is reasonable cause to believe an emergency exists that poses an immediate threat to the health, safety, and/or welfare of residents and/or employees. Legitimate emergency conditions will not be used as a pretext for unit inspections.
- (f) If the resident and all adult members of the household are absent from the dwelling unit at the time of entry, the CHA LLC shall leave a written statement in the dwelling unit specifying the date, time, and purpose of entry prior to leaving the dwelling unit.

Section 13. Defects Hazardous to Life, Health or Safety

If the dwelling unit is damaged to the extent that it creates conditions hazardous to the life, health, or safety of the occupants, the following terms will be applicable:

- (a) CHA Responsibilities and Services: The CHA LLC shall be responsible for repair of the unit within a reasonable period after receiving notice from the resident. If the damage was caused by the resident, resident authorized members, resident's pet(s), animal(s), guests, or persons under the resident's control, the reasonable cost of the repairs shall be charged to the resident. The reasonable period to abate and repair an emergency is 24 hours.
- (b) If necessary repairs cannot be made within a reasonable time, the CHA LLC shall offer the resident decent, safe, and sanitary alternative lodgings.

The abatement will remain in effect until the damage is corrected.

- (i) CHA LLC makes no representation that its premises are safe from the threat of theft, injury or damage to residents, residents' families, or the residents' property. CHA LLC makes no representation that its gates, fences, locks, security or surveillance cameras, and other equipment and services are provided for resident's safety. Any such items are provided for the protection of CHA LLC's property.

Any deficiencies noted on the inspection report will be corrected by the CHA LLC at no charge to the resident prior to move-in or within 10 business days after move-in, provided the defect does not render the unit uninhabitable. In the event the CHA LLC fails to correct the deficiencies within 10 business days of the move-in, the resident may exercise the remedy described in Lease Section 13(c).
- (c) Annual and Interim Inspections: Residents will be notified at least 48 hours in advance of any annual or interim inspections. CHA LLC will request work orders for items found to be in disrepair and residents will be given a 30-day notice for any housekeeping violations.

An interim inspection will occur at the end of the 30-day cure period to follow up on any housekeeping violations found during the annual inspection and measure corrections to any identified unsatisfactory conditions and progress toward resolution of the problem. If the housekeeping violation has not been resolved during notice and any cure period, the CHA LLC may proceed with lease termination.

Annual and Interim inspections of units will also occur where an extra bedroom has been granted in order to reasonably accommodate a resident or family member's verifiable disability. Management will inspect to see that the extra rooms are being utilized based on the documented reason for the accommodation (e.g. a live-in aide, large hospital bed, breathing apparatus, mobility aides, etc. are housed within the room). If the extra bedroom is not being used in accordance with the documented reason for the accommodation, the resident may be subjected to lease termination or mandatory transfer.

- (d) Move-out Inspection: The CHA LLC will inspect the dwelling unit at the time the resident vacates and give the resident a written statement of the charges, if any, for which the resident is responsible.
