The reports and submission dates shall be specified by Owner and adhered to by Manager. Such reports include, but are not limited to, the following reporting categories: capital, debt, financial, lease/unit, compliance and audit. A partial listing of required reports is attached as Exhibit F and will be modified, from time to time, at the Owner's sole discretion. following, including but not limited to: signature authorizations, electronic banking permissions and internet banking access.

Banking fees associated with the commercially reasonable activities of the property management accounts shall be the responsibility of the Owner. "Excess" banking fees shall be construed as those fees which are generated as a result of Manager's standard of care failure (i.e. writing NSF checks). Excess banking fees and similar charges may be deducted from Management Fees.

The CHA Treasury Department reserves the right to change designated financial institutions or banking services. However, such action will be performed in a manner which will ensure that the property management operational or financial activities of Manager will not be unreasonably hindered.

Section 4.2 Depository Account

Manager shall establish a "Depository Account" at a reputable financial institution authorized to do business in the State of Illinois, which shall be used for the deposit of all funds received to pay operating expenses, debt service and the Management Fee. The Depository Account shall be under the sole control of Manager.

Section 4.3 Management of Security Deposit Transactions

ARTICLE 5. DISPUTES

Section 5.1 Disputes

In the event of a dispute between the parties involving this Agreement, both parties will attempt to negotiate a resolution. If the parties cannot resolve the dispute through negotiation, either party shall, unless otherwise set forth herein, submit the dispute in writing to the Deputy Chief Procurement Officer of the CHA's Department of Procurement and Contracts for resolution. His/her decision shall be final and binding, subject to review by a court of competent jurisdiction. The parties agree that this is the sole remedy between the parties and that if review by a court is sought, no additional causes of action may be asserted. These dispute resolution obligations contained in this Agreement shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

In the event of a dispute between Manager and any of its subcontractors, Manager agrees to expeditiously address and seek resolution of the dispute.

ARTICLE 6. RISK MANAGEMENT

Section 6.1 Insurance

Manager agrees to comply with and meet or exceed all of Owner's insurance requirements that are set forth in Exhibit I, which is attached hereto and incorporated by reference as if fully set forth herein.

Section 6.2 Indemnification of Owner

To the maximum extent permitted by law, Manager agrees to defend, indemnify, and hold harmless Owner, CHA, their respective officers, commissioners, employees, agents (collectively "Owner"), and other Managers from all claims, suits, liabilities, damages, costs, company obligations, expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) of any nature whatsoever arising from or relating to, in whole or part (i) Manager's breach of its obligations, representations or warranties under this Agreement, (ii) the failure of Manager, its employees, subcontractors, or agents to comply with the Governing Documents, (iii) violation by Manager, its employees, subcontractors, or agents of any federal, state or local law, regulation or ordinance applicable to Manager's activities under this Agreement, (iv) Manager's contracts for goods and services regarding the Property to which the Owner is not a party, or (v) the negligence, willful or wanton conduct, intentional tort or criminal activity of Manager, its employees, subcontractors, or agents. Provided, however, that Manager shall have no obligation to indemnify Owner or other Managers for claims, suits, liabilities, damages, costs, expenses arising from the negligent act or omission or willful misconduct of Owner or other Managers as applicable.

Further, as to general liability negligence claims by third parties, e.g., for personal injuries related to premises liability matters, that arise from Manager's activities which fall within the scope of Manager's duties under the Agreement and do not constitute willful or wanton conduct, intentional tort, or criminal activity of Manager or its employees, Manager's liability for its duty to defend, indemnify, and hold harmless Owner and other Managers is limited to a deductible of $5,000 per claim. To facilitate this limitation of $5,000, Owner, or at Owner's discretion its insurer, agrees to defend and indemnify Manager on these general premises liability claims that involve conduct Owner deems as implicating ordinary negligence and not a higher degree of negligence. This limitation of $5,000 and the Owner's agreement to defend and indemnify, as stated in this paragraph, do not apply to any claims that arise from or relate to alleged acts or inaction of Manager's subcontractors or agents.

Manager expressly agrees to defend, indemnify, and hold harmless Owner and other Managers for amounts paid for claims, suits, liabilities, damages, costs, company obligations, expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) of any nature arising from or relating to, in whole or part, (i) Manager's failure to abate/mitigate a dangerous condition within twenty-four hours of notice of such condition as required by the Uniform Physical Condition Standard (UPCS) inspection protocol developed by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development's (HUD) Real Estate Assessment Center (REAC), (ii) Manager's failure to report a claim or loss within twenty-four hours of Manager receiving notice of such claim or loss, (iii) Manager's failure to properly secure and execute a subcontract, including but not limited to Manager's failure to ensure that Manager and Owner have been named and endorsed as additional insureds on the subcontractor's liability insurance policies (and that such insurance has been endorsed as primary and non-contributory with any other insurance available to Manager and Owner), and/or (iv) Manager is otherwise negligent in the performance of its duties under this Agreement.

Manager shall specifically indemnify and hold harmless Owner for and against all actions, claims, demands, liabilities, taxes, losses, costs, fees (including reasonable attorney's fees) and expenses suffered or incurred by or imposed upon or instituted against Owner directly or indirectly in connection with Section 9.8(f) herein.

The annual Management Fee shall be paid in twelve equal monthly installments, paid by Owner into a Depository Account held by Manager within 30 days of receipt of invoice.

Manager acknowledges and agrees that any increase in the Management Fee shall be subject to the provisions of Section 11.1 of the Partnership Agreement and the Management Fee and all rights and privileges of Manager to the Management Fee are hereby and will at all times continue to be subject and unconditionally subordinate in all respects to the payment of the Mortgage Loan (as defined in the Partnership Agreement) and to any renewals, extensions, modifications, assignments, replacements or consolidations thereof.

If Manager fails to commence, or continue diligent efforts to cure such default, following thirty (30) calendar days, the Owner may, at its sole option, declare Manager in default of this Agreement and/or sanction Manager with fines up to $1,000 per instance. Minimum Performance Requirements are set forth in Exhibit J.

Whether to declare Manager in default is within the sole discretion of the Owner and neither that decision nor the factual basis for it is subject to review or challenge under the disputes provision of this Agreement. Written notification of the default, issuance of sanction and any intention of the Owner to terminate the Agreement, shall be provided to Manager and such decision shall be final and effective upon Manager's receipt of such notice pursuant to Article 11.
