RECITALS

WHEREAS, the CHA is engaged in the development and operation of safe, decent and sanitary housing throughout the City of Chicago for low income families in accordance with the United States Housing Act of 1937, 42 U.S.C. §1437 et seq.; regulations promulgated by the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development ("HUD"), and the Illinois Housing Authorities Act. 310 ILCS 10/1 et seq., as amended, and other applicable laws, regulations and ordinances; and

WHEREAS, the CHA released Request for Proposals No. 3170 ("RFP") on or about April 12, 2022 to solicit proposals from professional accessibility consultants to assist the CHA in incorporating accessibility requirements in its dwelling and non-dwelling structures; and

WHEREAS, the Consultant submitted its Proposal to the CHA on or about May 5, 2022 indicating it is ready, willing and able to provide the services as set forth in the RFP; and

WHEREAS, CHA’s Board of Commissioners authorized entering into this Agreement on September 20, 2022 by resolution number 2022-CHA-44;

WHEREAS, the CHA and the Consultant desire to enter into this Agreement for the provision of accessibility consulting services as set forth herein.

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual promises and the terms and conditions set forth herein, the CHA and the Consultant agree as follows:

ARTICLE 1. INCORPORATION OF RECITALS

Section 1.01 Incorporation of Recitals

The recitals set forth above are incorporated by reference as if fully set forth herein.

Section 1.02 Definitions

“Architect of Record (AOR)/Engineer of Record (EOR)” – refers to the architect or engineer contracted by the CHA to perform design services and develop bid documents for the project.
“Accessible” – when used with respect to the design, construction, alteration, or adaptation of housing and non-dwelling facilities, refers to the requirement that the facility or portion of the facility when designed, constructed, altered, or adapted can be approached, entered, and used by individuals who have a disability.

“Accessible Route” – refers to a continuous, unobstructed route which is usable by people with disabilities.

“Accessible Unit” or “Mobility Accessible Unit” – refers to a Dwelling Unit that is designed, constructed, altered or adapted to comply with the Uniform Federal Accessibility Standards (UFAS), is located on an Accessible Route and is Accessible, as defined herein. Types of units include:

- “UFAS-Mobility” or “Mobility” Units: designed specifically for individuals with mobility disabilities, in accordance with UFAS.
- “UFAS-Sensory” or “Sensory” Units: designed specifically for individuals with sensory (i.e. visual or audial) disabilities, in accordance with UFAS.
- “Type A” Units: designed in accordance with the fullest extent of the City of Chicago Building Code, Chapter 18-11.
- “Type B” Units: designed in accordance with the Fair Housing Act Accessibility Guidelines (FHAAG) and the City of Chicago Building Code, Chapter 18-11.

“Contract” means this contract entered into between the CHA and the Contractor. It includes the Agreement, the General Conditions for Non-Construction Contracts (HUD Form 5370-C), the Certifications and Representations of Offerors – Non-Construction Contracts (HUD Form 5369-C), the Contractor’s Affidavit and any other documents or exhibits which have been specifically incorporated by reference in the Agreement.

This term is an essential aspect of applying Accessibility guidelines, principles, and codes. Every element or unit of a facility need not be accessible, but the intent should always be to provide an environment whereas policies, programs and facilities do not deny access to people with disabilities.

“Structural Impracticality” – refers to proposed changes which would require altering structure or load-bearing members to an extent whereas the alterations would constitute an undue financial burden.

In addition, Consultant agrees that it will not do anything contrary to the CHA’s ownership in the Work Product or which might impair the value of such ownership. Consultant agrees to cooperate with the CHA in executing all documentation requested by the CHA to enable the CHA to perfect its right in and to the Work Product.

B. All Work Product and CHA Documents provided to, or prepared or assembled by the Consultant in connection with the performance of the Consultant’s Services under this Agreement shall be the property of the CHA. The Consultant shall establish precautions against the destruction of all such CHA Documents and shall be responsible for any loss or damage to the CHA Documents while in the Consultant’s possession or use and the Consultant shall be responsible for restoring such CHA Documents at its sole expense. D. The Consultant shall maintain its books, records, documents, and other materials related to the performance of the Agreement for a period of three (3) years following the expiration or termination of the Agreement and after final payment has been made and all other pending matters are closed, and adopt accounting procedures and practices sufficient to reflect properly all costs of whatever nature claimed to have been incurred or anticipated to be incurred for or in connection with the performance of the Consultant’s Services under the Agreement. The Consultant shall maintain its accounting system, books and records in a manner that complies with generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP"), consistently applied throughout.

E. The provisions of Section 2.07 shall survive the expiration or termination of the Agreement.

F. The Consultant shall flow down the provisions of this Section 2.07 titled “Ownership of Work Product, Documents, Records and Reports” to its subcontractors at every tier.

Section 2.08 Audit Requirement

The CHA retains an irrevocable right to independently or, through a third party, audit the Consultant’s books and records pertaining to this Agreement and disallow any inappropriate billings upon written notice to the Consultant. In the event of a disallowance, the Consultant shall refund the amount disallowed to the CHA.

Section 2.09 Confidentiality

The Consultant agrees that all Deliverables, reports, documents or other information prepared or assembled by, or received or encountered by the Consultant, its employees, agents and subcontractors pursuant to this Agreement are to remain confidential (“Confidential Information”). Further, the Consultant agrees that such Confidential Information shall not be made available to any individual or organization other than the CHA, HUD or courts of competent jurisdiction or administrative agencies pursuant to a subpoena without the prior written approval of the CHA. In the event the Consultant is presented with a subpoena regarding such Confidential Information which may be in the Consultant’s possession by reason of this Agreement, the Consultant must immediately give notice to the CHA’s Chief Executive Officer and Chief Legal Officer with the understanding that the CHA will have the opportunity to contest such process by any means available to it before the Confidential Information is submitted to a court or other third party. The Consultant, however, is not obligated to withhold the delivery of such Confidential Information beyond the time ordered by the court or administrative agency, unless the subpoena or request is quashed or the time to produce is otherwise extended. The Consultant agrees that Section 2.09 of the Agreement shall survive the termination of the Agreement.
Section 2.10 Subcontracts and Assignments

Unless otherwise provided for herein, the Consultant shall not subcontract, assign, delegate or otherwise transfer all or any part of its obligations under this Agreement or any part hereof without the prior written approval of the CHA. The absence of such prior written approval shall void the attempted subcontracting, assignment, delegation or transfer and shall have no legal effect on the Services or this Agreement.

The Consultant shall not transfer or assign, in whole or in part, any funds or claims due or which may become due under this Agreement without the prior written approval of the CHA. Any attempted transfer or assignments of any contract funds, either in whole or in part, or any interest therein, which shall be due or become due to the Consultant, without the prior written approval of CHA, shall be void and of no legal effect. The CHA expressly reserves the right to assign or otherwise transfer all or any part of its rights or interests hereunder.

Section 2.11 Patents and Copyrights

The CHA reserves an exclusive, perpetual and irrevocable license to reproduce, publish or otherwise use, and to authorize others to use for CHA or HUD purposes, including, but not limited to, commercial exploitation: (a) the copyright or patent in any work developed or discovered in the performance of the Services under this Agreement, and (b) any rights of copyright or patent of which the Consultant purchases ownership with funds awarded pursuant to this Agreement for the purpose of meeting the objectives of this Agreement.

Section 2.12 Religious Activities

In connection with the Services to be provided under this Agreement, the Consultant agrees:

A. That it shall not discriminate against any person on the basis of religion and shall not limit employment or give preference in employment to persons on the basis of religion; and

B. That it shall not discriminate when rendering the Services hereunder against any person on the basis of religion and shall not limit such Services or give preference to persons on the basis of religion.

Section 2.13 Drug-Free Workplace

The Consultant shall establish procedures and policies to promote a "Drug-Free Workplace." Further, the Consultant shall notify all employees of its policy for maintaining a "Drug-Free Workplace," and the penalties that may be imposed for drug abuse violations occurring in the workplace. Further, the Consultant shall notify the CHA if any of its employees are convicted of a criminal drug offense in the workplace no later than ten (10) days after such conviction.

Section 2.14 Force Majeure

Notwithstanding any other provision in this Agreement, the Consultant shall not be liable or held responsible for any failure to perform or for delays in performing its obligations under the Agreement, including but not limited to, the Scope of Services set forth hereunder, which result from circumstance or causes beyond Consultant’s reasonable control, including without limitation, fire or casualty, acts of God, strikes or labor disputes, war or violence, or any lay, order or requirement of any government agency or authority.

Section 2.15 CHA Inspector General

It is the duty of the Consultant and its subcontractors to cooperate with the CHA Inspector General in any investigation or hearing undertaken. All of the Consultant’s subcontracts must include this provision and require agreement and compliance with the same.

The base term of this Agreement is for the two-year period of January 1, 2023 through December 31, 2024 or until the Agreement is terminated in accordance with its terms, whichever occurs first.
Section 3.02  Contract Extension Options

The CHA, at its sole discretion, may extend this Agreement for two additional 1-year option periods, subject to CHA Board approval, if required. Any extension shall be under the same terms and conditions as this original Agreement. The Agreement shall be modified to reflect the time extension in accordance with the provisions of Section 9.03 of this Agreement.

Section 3.03  Timeliness of Performance

The Consultant shall use its best efforts to provide the Services and Deliverables within the time limits required under this Agreement, or from time to time as otherwise required by the CHA. The Consultant and the CHA acknowledge that deadlines for certain Services provided for in this Agreement may be dictated by the requirements of agencies or events outside the control of the CHA and the Consultant, and the failure by the Consultant to meet deadlines may result in economic or other significant losses to the CHA. Therefore, except to the extent that the Consultant’s inability to meet its deadlines is caused by the delay due to the CHA, by acts of God or other events outside the control of the Consultant, TIME IS OF THE ESSENCE, so that failure to perform in a timely manner shall be considered a material breach of the Agreement.

ARTICLE 4.  COMPENSATION AND PAYMENT

Section 4.01  Compensation

Compensation under this Agreement shall not exceed One Million and 00/100 Dollars ($1,000,000.00) (the “Not-to-Exceed Amount”) for the two-year base term for the satisfactory performance of the Services. Compensation for each Option Year, if exercised, shall be an amount not-to-exceed Five Hundred Thousand and 00/100 ($500,000.00), for an aggregate not-to-exceed compensation amount of Two Million and 00/100 Dollars ($2,000,000.00) for the base term and both option years, if exercised. Consultant’s billing rates shall be in accordance with the hourly rates set forth in the Fee Schedule attached hereto as Exhibit VIII. It is mutually understood and agreed by the parties that the above agreed upon compensation amount, which includes all reimbursable expenses, is the only compensation provided for in this agreement and there will be no additional costs, fees or other type of profit allowable or paid under this Agreement without an express written amendment to this Agreement in accordance with Article 9, Section 9.03, authorizing said additional work or expenses and increasing the not to exceed compensation amount.

Each invoice shall contain back-up information as required by the CHA, including but not limited to, a brief description of the services provided during the invoice period broken down by building or project identification. Invoices shall identify personnel performing the Services and shall set forth the applicable billing rates. The CHA shall not be required to give approval or make payments pursuant to a submitted invoice unless the information required to be included with the invoice, or that has been specifically requested by the CHA, and all the reporting requirements and Deliverables as set forth in this Agreement, or other reasonable and written requests by CHA for additional information, have been met. Invoices shall be directed to: Chicago Housing Authority, Accounts Payable, 60 E. Van Buren Street, 11th Floor, Chicago, Illinois 60605 and/or to the electronic portal provided to Consultant.

CHA will make commercially reasonable efforts to make payment for services rendered under this Agreement within thirty (30) days after receipt and approval of each invoice submitted. All invoices shall be subject to review and approval by the CHA. If the CHA objects to all or any portion of any invoice, it shall notify the Consultant of its objection in writing and both parties shall make every effort to settle the disputed portion of the invoice. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the CHA may, at its option, pay the undisputed portion of any invoice without being deemed to have accepted the disputed portion. All disputes regarding invoices shall be handled in accordance with Paragraph No. 7 of the General Conditions.

Section 4.03 Non-Appropriation

Funding for this Agreement is subject to: (1) availability of federal funds from HUD, (2) the approval of funding by the CHA’s Board of Commissioners, and (3) the Consultant’s satisfactory performance of this Agreement. Furthermore, in the event that no funds or insufficient funds are appropriated and budgeted or appropriated funds are rescinded by Congress in any fiscal period of the term of this Agreement for payments to be made under this Agreement, then the CHA may notify the Consultant of such occurrence and this Agreement shall terminate on the earlier of the last day of the fiscal period for which sufficient appropriation was made or whenever the funds appropriated for payment under this Agreement are exhausted.

ARTICLE 5. DISPUTES

Section 5.01 Disputes

In the event of a dispute between the CHA and the Consultant involving this Agreement, both parties will attempt to negotiate a resolution. If the parties cannot resolve the dispute through negotiation, either party shall, unless otherwise set forth herein, submit the dispute in writing to CHA’s Deputy Chief of Procurement in accordance with the provision set forth in Paragraph No. 7 of the HUD General Conditions for Non-Construction Contracts (Exhibit IV).

ARTICLE 6. RISK MANAGEMENT

Section 6.01 Insurance

The Consultant agrees to comply with and meet or exceed all of CHA’s insurance requirements that are set forth in Exhibit V, which is attached hereto and incorporated by reference herein as if fully set forth herein.

Section 6.02 Indemnification

To the fullest extent permitted by law, the Consultant agrees to indemnify the CHA, its respective Commissioners, board members, officers, directors, agents, employees, vendors, invitees and visitors for any and all physical or non-physical injury to any person, including loss of human life and/or damage to property, arising from the Services performed or to be performed under this Agreement, to the extent caused by Consultant’s negligence, willful misconduct, errors or omissions. The Consultant’s indemnification obligations arising hereunder include, without limitation, any and all liabilities, losses, penalties, damages, settlements, environmental liability, costs, charges, professional fees (including reasonable costs of investigation, reasonable attorneys’ fees and other legal expenses) or other expenses or liabilities of every kind, nature and character arising out of or relating to any and all claims, liens, demands, obligations, actions, suits, judgments or settlements, proceedings or causes of action (collectively, “Claims”), including the enforcement of this indemnification provision. The indemnities contained herein shall survive the termination of the Agreement.

The Consultant shall be responsible for any and all physical or non-physical injury to any person, including loss of human life and/or damage to property arising from the Services performed or to be performed under this Agreement, to the extent caused by Consultant’s negligence, willful misconduct, errors, or omissions, and shall hold the CHA, its respective Commissioners, board members, officers, directors, agents, employees, vendors, invitees and visitors harmless from any and all loss or damage from such injury, damage or death.

To the extent permissible by law, Consultant waives any limits on Consultant’s liability that it would otherwise have by virtue of the Workers Compensation Act or any other law or judicial decision (specifically Kotecki v. Cyclops Welding Corporation, 146 Ill.2d 155 (1991)).

The Consultant further agrees to investigate, handle, respond to, provide defense for and defend all suits for any and all Claims included in this indemnification provision at its sole expense, and agrees to bear all other costs and expenses related thereto, even if the Claims are considered groundless, false or fraudulent. The CHA shall have the right, at its option and at the Consultant’s expense, to participate in the defense of any suit, without relieving the Consultant of any of its obligations under this indemnity provision. The Consultant expressly understands and agrees that the requirements set forth in this indemnity to protect, defend, indemnify, keep, save and hold the CHA free and harmless are separate from and not limited by the Consultant’s responsibility to obtain, procure and maintain insurance pursuant to this Agreement.

ARTICLE 7. EVENTS OF DEFAULT, REMEDIES, TERMINATION, RIGHT TO OFFSET, SUSPENSION

Section 7.01 Events of Default Defined

Each of the following shall constitute an event of default:

B. The Consultant’s failure to perform any of its obligations under this Agreement including, but not limited to, the following:

7. Any other acts specifically and expressly stated in this Agreement as constituting an event of default.

8. Failure to cooperate with the CHA Inspector General in any investigations, audits, reviews, inspections or hearings.

C. Any change in majority ownership or majority control of the Consultant without the prior written approval of the CHA, which written approval shall not be unreasonably withheld.

E. The consent to an involuntary petition in bankruptcy or the failure of Consultant to have vacated within ninety (90) days from the date of entry thereof any order approving an involuntary petition;

F. The entering of an order, judgment or decree by any court of competent jurisdiction, on the application of a creditor, adjudicating Consultant bankrupt or insolvent or approving a petition seeking reorganization or appointing a receiver, trustee or liquidator of all or a substantial part of such party’s assets, and such order, judgment or decree continuing unstayed and in effect for a period of one hundred twenty (120) consecutive days.

G. The Consultant’s default under any other agreement it may presently have or may enter into with the CHA during this Agreement. The Consultant acknowledges and agrees that in the event of a default under this Agreement the CHA may also declare a default under any such other agreements.
Section 7.02 Remedies

Within five (5) business days after Consultant has been provided written notice from CHA of the occurrence of each default, Consultant shall provide a statement setting forth the actions that Consultant has taken and/or proposes to take with respect to curing the default, and an estimated time period within which Consultant anticipates being able to cure the default.

Absent an agreed-upon time frame to cure an event of default, Consultant shall be given thirty (30) calendar days to cure each event of default following CHA’s notice. If Consultant fails to cure such default within thirty (30) calendar days after receipt of written notice, or if the Consultant has failed to commence and continue diligent efforts to cure such default within thirty (30) days if such default cannot be reasonably cured within thirty (30) calendar days after notice, the CHA may, at its sole option, declare the Consultant in default. Whether to declare the Consultant in default is within the sole discretion of the CHA and neither that decision nor the factual basis for it is subject to review or challenge under the disputes provision of this Agreement. Written notification of the default, and any intention of the CHA to terminate the Agreement, shall be provided to the Consultant and such decision shall be final and effective upon the Consultant’s receipt of such notice pursuant to Article 10. Upon the giving of such notice, the CHA may invoke any or all of the following remedies:

A. The right to terminate this Agreement as to any or all of the Services yet to be performed effective at a time specified by the CHA.

B. The right to pursue any and all remedies, legal and/or equitable, available to the CHA.

C. The right to withhold all or any part of Consultant’s compensation hereunder with respect to Services not completed in accordance with the terms hereof prior to the termination of this Agreement.

D. The right to deem Consultant non-responsible in future contracts to be awarded by the CHA.

E. The right to take over and complete the Services or any part thereof, either directly or through others.

If the CHA considers it to be in its best interests, it may elect not to declare default or to terminate the Agreement hereunder. The parties acknowledge that this provision is solely for the benefit of the CHA and that if the CHA permits Consultant to continue to provide the Services despite one or more events of default, the Consultant shall in no way be relieved of any of its responsibilities, duties or obligations under this Agreement nor shall the CHA waive or relinquish any of its rights.

The remedies under the terms of this Agreement are not intended to be exclusive of any other remedies provided, but each and every such remedy shall be cumulative and shall be in addition to any other remedies, existing now or hereafter, at law, in equity or by statute. No delay or failure to exercise any right or power accruing upon any event of default shall be deemed as a waiver of such right or power, and every such right and power may be exercised from time to time and as often as may be deemed expedient.

Section 7.03 Termination for Convenience

The CHA may terminate this Agreement, or all or any portion of the Services to be performed under it, at any time by written notice from the CHA to Consultant when the Agreement may be deemed to be no longer in the best interests of the CHA. If the CHA elects to terminate the Agreement in full, all Services to be performed hereunder shall cease effective ten (10) calendar days after the date written notice has been provided unless such other date is specified in the notice of termination. The Consultant shall continue to render the services until the effective date of termination. Subject to performance within the requisite performance standards and audits of invoices as set forth above, the CHA shall pay to Consultant on a pro-rata basis, costs incurred for Services rendered through the date of termination. No costs incurred by the Consultant after the effective date of the termination shall be permitted. This Section 7.03 is not subject to Article 5 of this Agreement.

The Consultant shall flow down the provisions of Section 7.03 in all of its contracts with its subcontractors, if any.

Section 7.04 Suspension

The CHA may at any time request that the Consultant temporarily suspend its Services, or any part thereof, by giving ten (10) days prior written notice to the Consultant or upon no notice in the event of an emergency. No costs incurred during such suspension of services shall be allowed. The Consultant shall promptly resume its performance of such Services under the same terms and conditions as stated herein upon written notice by the CHA. Consultant shall cooperate with CHA to ensure an orderly resumption of Services following any suspension.

Section 7.05 No Damages for Delay

The Consultant agrees that it shall make no claims against the CHA for damages, charges, interest, additional costs or fees incurred by reason of delays or suspension of work caused by the CHA in the performance of its obligations under this Agreement. The Consultant’s sole and exclusive remedy for delays or suspension of work caused by the CHA is an extension of time equal to the duration of delay or suspension to allow the Consultant to perform its obligations under this Agreement.

Section 7.06 Right to Offset

To the extent permitted by applicable law:

A. In connection with performance under the Agreement, the CHA may offset any incremental costs and other damages the CHA incurs in any and all of the following circumstances:

   i. If the CHA terminates the Agreement for default or any other reason resulting from the Consultant’s performance or non-performance;

   ii. If the CHA exercises any of its remedies under Section 7.02 of the Agreement;
iii. If the CHA has any credits due or has made any overpayments under the Agreement.

The CHA may offset these incremental costs and any other damages by use of any payment due for Services completed before the CHA terminated the Agreement or before the CHA exercised any remedies. If the amount offset is insufficient to cover those incremental costs and other damages, the Consultant shall be liable for and must promptly remit to the CHA the balance upon written demand for it. The right to offset is in addition to and not a limitation of any other remedies available to the CHA.

B. Without breaching this Agreement, the CHA may set off a portion of the compensation due under this Agreement in an amount equal to the amount of any liquidated or un-liquidated damages or claims that the CHA has against the Consultant arising out of any other agreements between the CHA and the Consultant or otherwise unrelated to this Agreement. If and when the CHA’s claims against the Consultant are finally adjudicated in a court of competent jurisdiction or otherwise resolved, the CHA will reimburse the Consultant to the extent of the amount the CHA has offset against this Agreement inconsistently with the determination or resolution.

J. That the Consultant has the power and authority to enter into and perform all of its obligations under this Agreement, and that this Agreement, when executed, will constitute the duly authorized, valid and legally binding obligation of the Consultant.

No member of or delegate to the Congress of the United States or the Illinois General Assembly or CHA employee shall be entitled to any share or part of this Agreement or to any financial benefit to arise from it.

B. The Consultant covenants that it and its employees, or subcontractors, presently have no interest and shall acquire no interest, direct or indirect, in this Agreement which would conflict in any manner or degree with the performance of the Services hereunder. The Consultant further covenants that during the performance of this Agreement, no person having any such interest shall be employed. Consultant agrees that if the CHA determines that any of Consultant’s services for others conflict with the Services that the Consultant is to render for the CHA under this Agreement; Consultant shall terminate such other services immediately upon request of the CHA.

C. Additionally, pursuant to the conflict of interest requirements in 2 C.F.R. §200.318 (c), no person who is an employee, agent, consultant, officer, or appointed official of the CHA and who exercises or has exercised any functions or responsibilities with respect to HUD assisted activities, or who is in a position to participate in a decision making process or gain inside information with regard to HUD activities, may obtain a financial interest or benefit from the activity, or have an interest in any contract, subcontract, or agreement with respect thereto, or the proceeds hereunder, either for himself or herself or for those whom he or she has family or business ties, during his or her tenure or for one year thereafter.
