Targeted Services to Help with What You Need Most

Resident Services partners with a range of providers who work with your family to achieve your goals. Through these services and programs, we can help with your:

Housing Stability and Enhance Quality of Life—Access resources to stay healthy and engaged in your community; remain lease compliant.

Education—Engage in programs for both youth and adults to support your education.

Economic Power—Find, keep, and advance in a job and career. Build wealth; invest in homeownership.

Our Mission: CHA’s Resident Services Division works to increase the quality of life of all residents and support those on a pathway towards economic power.

FamilyWorks

FamilyWorks is CHA’s case coordination program offering targeted, wrap-around supports to CHA families. Residents can contact their provider directly to learn about services available to them. Call 312-935-2625 if you’re not sure how to get in touch with FamilyWorks.

Some FamilyWorks locations are staffed by CHA Service Coordination Specialists who are able to provide immediate support and connect you with a FamilyWorks provider.

HCV Participants

Although not all Resident Services programs are open to families living in the private market with a Housing Choice Voucher, families can take advantage of programs and services that are marked with this symbol.

HCV families can access services through their HCV office or contact a program directly.
HOW WE CAN HELP

Enhance Your Family’s Quality of Life

Resident Services can support residents to remain lease compliant, have access to resources to stay mentally and physically healthy, and to be engaged in their communities.

If you need help staying compliant with your lease, you can:

› Get help with lease issues. All public housing residents can contact their FamilyWorks provider* for assistance.

› Get help with issues specific to mixed-income developments. Public housing residents in mixed-income developments should contact CHA’s Ombudsman’s Office at 312.913.7899.

If you want to satisfy your Right of Return, you can:

› Get support from CHA’s Housing Team. Residents who occupied a CHA unit as of October 1, 1999 and still have a Right of Return can contact CHA’s Housing team via the CHA Residents Services Info. Line at 312.786.3104.

If you need mental health support, you can:

› Access counseling services. All public housing residents can contact their FamilyWorks provider* for individual or group wellness counseling.

If you have been the victim of a targeted crime, you can:

› Get help from the Victim Assistance program. Public housing residents can get referrals to counseling services. Those who have been victims of violent crimes or trauma and who need to move for safety reasons may be relocated, according to provisions of the Admissions and Continued Occupancy Policy (ACOP). Contact 312.913.7396.

› Community Ambassador Program. Residents who desire to do meaningful community service within the building/development can earn rent credit monthly. Serving as a Community Ambassador will satisfy the HUD Community Service requirement.

› Find programs, events and resources for seniors. Seniors living in senior-designated housing should contact their Resident Service Coordinator to connect to services and opportunities. Seniors living in other housing types should contact their provider*.

› Find other programs and services in your neighborhood. Public housing residents can contact their FamilyWorks provider or Service Coordination Specialist about services offered by CHA and other organizations in their neighborhood*.

If you want to learn about moving to a new neighborhood, you can:

› Enroll in the Mobility Counseling program. HCV families can learn about finding housing in a neighborhood that may give your family access to better opportunities. Call Housing Choice Partners at 312.386.1009.

*Call FamilyWorks at 312.935.2625 if you’re not sure how to get in touch with your service provider.

HOW WE CAN HELP

Support Your Education

Resident Services has programs and partnerships that can help both youth and adults advance their education.

If youth in your household need summer or after school academic programs, you can:

- Find youth academic programs. Public housing residents can contact their FamilyWorks provider* for help finding youth programs offered by CHA or its partners.

  You can also call the CHA info line at 312.786.6601 and enter prompt #3.

If you have a young child, you can:

- Find an early learning program. Anyone in Chicago can go to www.chicagoearlylearning.org to find information on early learning programs.

- Enroll youth in summer and after school programs. Public housing residents can contact their FamilyWorks provider* for help finding youth programs offered by CHA or its partners.

  - Over the summer, all CHA youth can go to https://youth.thecha.org/
  - Call 312.786.6930 to learn about CHA summer programs, or go to onesummerchicago.org to learn about summer opportunities across the city.

If you want to go to college, you can:

- Attend one of the City Colleges of Chicago at little to no cost. All CHA residents can enroll in a certificate or degree program at the City Colleges of Chicago for no cost after financial aid is applied. For information about City Colleges programs, call 312.553.2830 or visit www.thecha.org/residents/partners-in-education-program.

- Apply for a CHA Scholarship. CHA awards scholarships of $2,000 to youth and adults attending post-secondary education. Applications are accepted during mid-January to mid-May. Check www.thecha.org/residents/chicago-housing-authority-scholarship-program for more information.

- Learn about how to apply for college. Public housing residents can contact their FamilyWorks provider* for help with the college application process, including applying for financial aid.

Opportunities for Youth

Resident Services and its partners offer a wide range of summer and out of school time opportunities for youth including:

- Specialized summer programs for youth and young adults interested in art and design, filmmaking, college, careers and more.
- After school programs through Chicago’s Department of Family and Support Services.
- Chicago Park District camps during the school year and over the summer at a discounted rate.
- The Summer Youth Employment program, which allows participants to explore careers, & build skills.
- A summer internship program for CHA residents enrolled in college or university.

*Call FamilyWorks at 312.935.2625 if you’re not sure how to get in touch with your service provider.

HOW WE CAN HELP

Increase Your Economic Power

Resident Services has a number of resources to help residents find, keep, and advance in a job or career.

- Talk to your family coach. Public housing residents can work with their family coach when engaged in FamilyWorks* to get help preparing for employment and obtain referrals.

- If you are job ready, contact the Employment Placement Services.
  All CHA residents who would like assistance with job placement can contact one of two Employment placement providers:

  - UCAN: 773.588.0180 extension 53784 or 53029
  - Employment & Employer Services: 312.429.5930

- Call the Workforce Opportunity Resource Center (WORC) at 773.342.9672 to learn more about these programs.

  Residents may also see City Colleges of Chicago on page 3 for occupational training programs.

- Visit an American Jobs Center. Anyone in Chicago can go to www.chicookworks.org/job-seekers/ to find locations of workforce centers and learn about other resources.

- The Workforce Opportunity Resource Center (WORC) offers training, business development and technical assistance to Section 3 eligible residents and businesses.

  If you want to find a Section 3 opportunity:

- Residents seeking jobs with CHA contractors through WORC should call 773.342.9672 to learn about Section 3 opportunities.

  If you want to start your own business:

- Residents wanting to start or enhance their business should call 773.342.9672 to learn more about CHA’s Business Development Academy.
