Partnerships & Events

CHA is proud to call 2017 the “Year of the Senior.” This year-long celebration recognizes the many important contributions that CHA senior residents make to CHA and the City of Chicago. This summer CHA staff went door to door during CHA’s Day of Service to deliver lunches and invite them to enjoy activities in their buildings. Overall, CHA staff visited 44 buildings and over 9,000 residents.

This summer, the CHA supported the Mayor’s Senior Fest! CHA assisted with transportation and provided over 50 volunteers to host over 1,000 CHA seniors at Millennium Park. CHA also hosted a table in the resource tent that promoted CHA senior housing opportunities and assisted interested seniors with housing applications.

CHA Held its Inaugural Senior Symposium, on Sept. 26th at McCormick Place:
The Senior Symposium brought nearly 1,000 CHA Seniors together for a day of learning and fun at McCormick Place that included workshops, exhibitors, and a keynote luncheon address from local broadcasting legend Merri Dee. The event was free to residents and included meals and transportation. Major sponsors included Walgreens, New City Supportive Living and Comcast.

For the third year in a row, CHA has partnered with multiple public and private health partners to conduct a flu prevention campaign entitled “Flu Fighters!” Partners include the City’s Public Health Dept. (CDPH) and Walgreens, both of which will be on hand to offer free flu shots during Operation Warm 2017 to CHA Residents.

CHA Celebrates the Contributions of Tenant Safety Patrol Program Participants

CHA’s Tenant Safety Patrol Program had been in effect for many years. In light of changing times and practices, CHA determined it could no longer approve a resident’s involvement in security functions and phased out the program. CHA gratefully acknowledges current and past Tenant Patrollers and their contributions and dedication to ensuring that all residents receive a quality of life within the community served. A special celebration was held on July 26 attended by more than 150 current and former Tenant Patrollers with a luncheon, certificates of appreciation and remarks by CHA’s CEO, Eugene Jones, Jr.

CHA Launches New Resident Community Ambassador Program for Senior and Family Sites

A new initiative, the Community Ambassador Program, was developed in collaboration with the Central Advisory Council and Senior Housing Advisory Council to replace the Tenant Safety Patrol Program. The purpose of the program is for interested residents to provide meaningful community service within their building or development and earn a rent credit. Serving their community will include (but will not be limited to) well-being checks, community networking, community building/development and organizing. Family Community Ambassadors (FCAs) will work under the supervision of CHA employees in the Resident Services Division, while Senior Community Ambassadors (SCA) are working under the supervision of Resident Services Coordinators (RSCs) at each senior building. The first phase of the Community Ambassador Program was launched in June when 254 SCAs began serving their communities. The second phase of the program will launch in early 2018 when FCAs will start. All participants earn a monthly rent credit contingent on the assigned role and meeting monthly commitments to the program.
